2021 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

COLORADO BUFFALOES vs. NORTHERN COLORADO BEARS

BUFFS SEASON OPENER AT FOLSOM FIELD ON A FRIDAY FOR FIRST-TIME EVER

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 2021 ● 7:07 p.m. MDT ● Folsom Field (50,183) ● Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 1 (Updated August 30, 2021)

PAC-12 Networks (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

BUFFALO BITS ...

The Colorado Buffaloes will open their 132nd season of intercollegiate football on Friday, Sept. 3, at Folsom Field in Boulder against the Northern Colorado Bears; kickoff is set for 7:07 p.m. MDT ... CU was 4-2 (3-1, second Pac-12 South) in the abbreviated 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic, while UNC (and all Big Sky Conference teams) opted out for the entire season ... Colorado has opened a season on a Friday seven previous times in its history, but never in Boulder; six times in Denver (4-2) and once one the road, at USC in 1964 (0-1); the Buffaloes are 18-25 on Fridays all-time including bowl games ... Colorado leads the series with its neighbors to the north by a 10-2 count, but the two, located about 50 miles apart, have met just once since 1934 (a 41-21 CU win in 2017) ... Colorado enters the 2021 season with an all-time record of 714-517-36 (a .578 winning percentage); the Buffaloes are 26th all-time in the NCAA in wins and 36th in winning percentage ... In 131 previous season openers, Colorado owns an 82-44-5 record (.645), which includes a 54-20-1 mark in Boulder (.727); the Buffaloes have won five straight season lid-lifters (CU has opened 2-0 or better the last five seasons) ... Top anniversaries for the CU program in 2021 include the 50th anniversary of the 1971 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl champion team, which after defeating hometown Houston 29-17 in the game, finished No. 3 in the country behind Nebraska and Oklahoma, to this day the only time the top three teams in the final poll came from the same conference (then the Big Eight) ... It's also the 60th anniversary of CU's first Big Eight title (1961), the 45th of the 1976 crown, the 30th of the 1991 title, and the fifth of CU's Pac-12 South champion team (full list later in these notes) ... The 11 FBS opponents on the 2021 Colorado schedule combined for a 39-33 record in the COVID-19 shortened 2020 season (a 54.2 winning percentage); only one opponent played as many as 10 games (Texas A&M); three teams played as few as four. With most teams returning many players from 2019 with the NCAA eligibility exception, those same 11 teams were 87-55 (.613) ... CUBuffs.com/media is all things Buff (on-line media guide, game notes, live stats, etc.).

STAT OF THE WEEK

The Buffaloes are 22-10-1 in their last 33 season openers (dating back to 1988). In those 22 wins, Colorado scored 816 points, or an average of 37.1 per game; in the 10 losses, CU scored 172 points, or 17.2 per (it had 31 in the tie with Tennessee in 1990). In the five-game season opener winning streak, CU has scored 206 points, or 41.2, and over the last three, that number jumps to 48.3). In the 22 victories, the opponent scored 385 points, or 17.5 per. The bulk of the games have been against Colorado State (20; CU won 14), but the Buffaloes are 5-0-1 against Power-5 teams.

OBSCURE NOTE(S) OF THE WEEK

Zero Again. As in zero starts by quarterbacks on the CU roster for the second straight season; it hadn't happened since 2007 prior to last year. Only two players on the team have attempted passes in a game: QB Brendon Lewis was 6-of-10 for 95 yards last year when he replaced Sam Noyer in the Alamo Bowl (his only appearance of the season), and WR Dimitri Stanley, who was 0-of-1 on a trick play, also last season.

Youngins'. With the NCAA granting all student-athletes an extra year of eligibility due to the COVID-19 pandemic, along with the 2018 rule where if you played four games or less, you don't lose a year, the number of underclassmen nationally have skyrocketed—and it's no exception at Colorado. Of the 119 players on the roster, 69 are freshmen (43 first-year, 16 second-year, 10 third-year); when adding in 21 sophomores (three first-time, 15 second-time and three third-time), that's 90 underclassmen on the Buff roster. There are 23 juniors (20 classified as Jr.-2, or super juniors, with three Jr.-3), and just 3 seniors in their final year of eligibility. The other 3 are graduate transfers (two of whom have two years of eligibility remaining).

BRANCH TO FINALLY MAKE HALL

CU Athletic Hall of Famer Cliff Branch, who passed away in 2019, might finally see his dream come true and be selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in its next class in 2022. Branch, a three-time All-Pro, and former Super Bowl-winning head coach Dick Vermeil were named finalists on August 24 a five-person panel of selectors for the Hall of Fame. Branch was selected as the Senior finalist and Vermeil the Coach finalist.

Branch, who many say changed the game after he was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the fourth round of the 1972 NFL Draft, as he was deemed a “football player with speed and not a speedster who played football.” And he would become one of the most dynamic receivers of his era as the speedy deep threat who stretched opposing defenses. He caught 501 passes for 8,685 yards and 67 touchdowns in 14 seasons (1972 to '85) for the franchise, and added 73 receptions for 1,289 yards and five touchdowns in the postseason (only Jerry Rice, Julian Edelman and Michael Irvin have more postseason receiving yards than Branch).

He was a part of three Super Bowl championship teams with the Raiders (two in Oakland, one in L.A.), and led the NFL in touchdown receptions twice, with 13 in 1974 and 12 in 1976. He was a first-team All-Pro in 1974, '75 and '76.

At Colorado, in two seasons, he caught 36 passes for 665 yards and three touchdowns (averaging 18.5 yards per), while rushing 31 times for 354 yards and five scores (11.4 per carry). He returned eight kicks for touchdowns (six punts, two kickoffs); he averaged 25.2 yards per kickoff runback and 16.7 per punt try. He amassed 2,507 all-purpose yards in just 22 games, seventh-most in school history at the time (the six ahead of him all played three years). He died at the age of 71; his sister, Elaine Anderson, said in a call with Hall of Fame president David Baker that her brother “dreamed of this” and “wanted this so bad, he could taste it.” If selected, and while not a 100 percent certainty, he would become the first Buffalo in the Pro Hall.

NIL TAKES CENTER STAGE

Some NIL factoids as everyone is navigating the waters after the NCAA deferred at the last minute to each state’s regulations:

- Instead of legislation, the NCAA issued a directive (“Interim Policy”) allowing schools located in a state with an active NIL law to follow those laws (in place of NCAA rules) when regulating student-athletes’ rights of publicity:
 - This means that, per Colorado state law, CU student-athletes may earn compensation for the commercial use of their name, image, and likeness without harming their intercollegiate eligibility or athletics scholarship.
- This is not “pay-for-play” where a student-athlete is simply receiving money because of their athletic ability – it is a job, a quid pro quo agreement in which value is exchanged between the student-athlete and a third party:
 - This includes publicity activities like personal appearances, autograph sessions, or hosting camps and transactional activities like entering endorsement and sponsorship agreements.
- Student-athlete must engage in these activities as an individual, separate from their CU student-athlete capacity:
 - Just like any business entity, they must go through the official processes to use CU intellectual property (trademarks, logos, film, photos, institutional productions, etc.) or CU facilities and event spaces.
- Colorado law requires student-athletes disclose their NIL-related activities/agreements to us within 72 hours of making the deal or before their next competition, whichever occurs first:
 - It is strongly encouraged for student-athletes to report or discuss any potential engagement with CU’s compliance office in advance so they can flag any potential NCAA or University issues;
 - This disclosure process will be facilitated through the INFLCR Verified app, which is used internally for tracking and monitoring.
- Per Colorado law, student-athletes may contract with a non-relative “professional representative” or a “legal representative” (who must be a licensed attorney) to help them market themselves, arrange partnerships, facilitate relationships with brands, review contracts, etc.
 - The NCAA rule prohibiting student-athletes from signing with an athletic agent in efforts to secure a professional sports contract remains effective: student-athletes may only receive representation related to their NIL activities;
 - It is strongly recommended to disclose these representation agreements to the department.
- All international students (not just student-athletes) are heavily restricted in the type of employment activities they are allowed to engage in per their Student Visas; these students are responsible for making sure any employment/compensation activities do not violate immigration regulations.
- Certain sport-specific governing bodies (like the USGA) have their own amateurism rules that are not negated by state law.
- Bufs with a Brand, part of CU’s Leadership & Career Development Program, exists to educate and support the student-athletes as they explore name, image and likeness opportunities and navigate the related legislation– BWAB will provide programming throughout the school year focusing on brand management, entrepreneurship, and financial literacy.

SEVEN IN COLORADO

Colorado will play seven games in the state for the 17th time dating back to the 1998 season, but all of those featured a game against Colorado State in Denver, truly a neutral site. With the Texas A&M game in Denver, while technically neutral, it is more of a home game obviously for the Buffs. The last time CU had seven true home games was in 1982; the only other year with more than six was in 1978, when CU played eight home games (including the first five at home – when CU opened 5-0 and allowed exactly 7 points in each of those games).

➤ The first three or more games are within the state’s borders for the eighth time this century (2001, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2008, 2017, 2019, 2021).

OPENING DEPTH CHART NOTES

The Buffs released their season-opening depth chart on August 30, and for the seventh time in the last nine seasons, CU has more underclassmen than upperclassmen listed (though not a surprise with the NCAA granting an extra year of eligibility). Of the 69 players who are not listed as being out for an extended period of time, 45 are underclassmen (31 freshmen, 14 sophomores); there are 19 juniors (16 second-time, three third-time), two “super” seniors and three graduate transfers (two first-year, one second-year).

► The 31 freshmen breakdown into four categories: true (13), redshirts (2), second-time (7, meaning they played as true freshmen in 2020) and third-time (9, which means they played less than four games in 2019 and then qualified for the extra year of eligibility due to the NCAA’s COVID exception).

► In both 2016 and 2017, CU did not start a true freshman in any game over the course of the season; that had not happened since 2005. In 2018, true freshmen collectively started 15 games, in 2019, 12 did so and last year, true frosh started seven games (CB Christian Gonzalez 6, WR Brenden Rice 1).

NON-CONFERENCE TWO-FERS

Not many teams in the so-called “Power 5” schedule two “Power 5” teams in their non-conference slates. Notre Dame technically leads the way with four, not including the agreement to play five ACC teams annually, which then puts it at nine total. Stanford has three scheduled, and just 11 with two, including Colorado. (For season total, add nine Power 5 opponents to the count below to any Pac-12, Big Ten or Big 12 team, and eight to any ACC or SEC team.) A look at who is double-dipping (or more) in 2021:

Clemson (2): vs. Georgia (Sept. 4), at South Carolina (Nov. 27)

Colorado (2): vs. Texas A&M (Sept. 11 in Denver), Minnesota (Sept. 18)

Duke (2): Northwestern (Sept. 18), Kansas (Sept. 25)

THE BUFFS ON FRIDAY

Colorado has played 43 times on “TGIF” (Friday), seven times to open the season; the Buffaloes are 18-25 on the last day of the work week (15-24 regular season, 3-1 bowl), 4-9 in Boulder, 7-12 on the road, 7-4 at neutral sites (including 4-2 in Denver), 6-8 since joining the Pac-12 Conference and 9-10 in night games. Colorado opened the 1908, 1964, 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons on a Friday; CU’s second-ever night game was played on a Friday, against Oklahoma State in Stillwater in 1933. The Buffs have played three Friday night affairs in a season twice, in 2018 and 2019. The bulk of the games have been played in November (a 6-17 record), and the most common opponent has been Nebraska (15 times; 4-11). Here’s a look at the games:

SEASON OPENERS

Colorado is 82-44-5 in 131 season openers, with a 54-20-1 record at home, 18-19-3 on the road and 10-5-1 at neutral sites (10-5 in Denver, 0-0-1 in Anaheim). This is CU's first season opener in Boulder since 2009 (CSU). The Buffs have started a season just four times at home since 1997, those coming in 2004, 2005 and 2009 against Colorado State and in 2001 when the Buffs dropped a 24-22 decision to Fresno State in the Jim Thorpe Association Classic. CU was 9-6 in openers as a member of the Big 12 Conference and is 6-4 since joining the Pac-12.

OPENERS AN INDICATOR?

As stated previously, Colorado is 82-44-5 in season openers; but have they been foretelling of the season ahead? Take a look:

- ➔ The 82 seasons CU has won its opener, the Buffs went on to post winning records 62 times (75.3%), with 19 losing seasons and one even;
- ➔ The 44 seasons CU has lost its opener, the Buffs are six under .500: posting winning records 19 times and a losing mark 24 times (with one even);
- ➔ The 5 seasons CU tied in its opener, the Buffs had four winning records (including the 1990 national championship year), and one losing record.

The general belief is that if you win your opener, you go on to have a winning season 70 percent of the time; thus, CU exceeds that expectation in all three situations.

STREAKING INSIDE-THE-20 (RED ZONE)

In the last 15 season openers, the Buffaloes are 49-of-53 in the red zone (92.5%; 34 TDs, 15 FGs), which included 36-of-38 against Colorado State. This has followed a five-year stretch between 2001 and 2005 where Colorado was just 11-of-18 (9 TDs, 2 FG). The Buffs are 14-of-14 in their last three opening games inside-the-20 (7-of-7 against UCLA in '20; 4-of-4 in '19 and 3-of-3 in '18 against CSU). The Buffs were 0-1 in 2017, 8-of-8 in 2016, 2-2 in 2014, 3-of-3 in 2013, 3-of-4 in 2012), 2-of-2 at Hawai'i 2011, and versus CSU: 3-of-3 in 2010, 2-of-2 in 2009, 4-of-4 in 2007 and 2008).

MEMORABLE CU SEASON OPENERS

Quite often, the first career start, or coming out party, is intertwined with making a season opener a memorable one. Perhaps the biggest example of this in CU history came in 1989, when sophomore Darian Hagan made his debut as CU's starting quarterback; he may or may not have won the job, but with senior Sal Aunese stricken with stomach cancer the previous March, Hagan was handed the keys to the CU offense. On the second play of the game, Hagan raced 75 yards on the option to the Texas 2, starting the Buffaloes on their way to a 27-6 win, the first triumph en route to an 11-0 record in the regular season. Hagan rushed for 116 yards and a touchdown, and passed for 95 yards and another score. Other memorable CU openers and/or game one performances include:

1913	Colorado 7, Wyoming	CU's first season opener outside the state, occurring in Laramie. The CU yearbook account stated that the "final tally probably would have been greater had not the Varsity been frequently penalized for off-side play."
1921	Colorado 10, Denver 7	Art Quinlan's 35-yard field goal gave CU an early 3-0 lead, though Denver, then known as the Ministers, rallied to take a 7-3 halftime lead. With less than seven minutes remaining, Quinlan and Walter Franklin teamed on a 40-yard TD pass.
1937	Colorado 14, Missouri 6	Erv Cheney scores both CU touchdowns, Byron White boots a still-CU record 83 yard punt, and for the first time in school history, there is a charge for parking on the Boulder campus (15 cents a game).
1953	Colorado 21, Washington 20	The Buffs, a two-touchdown underdog, win in Seattle as Homer Jenkins, in his first collegiate game, did it all in CU's single-wing offense to often fill in for an injured Carroll Hardy. Jenkins threw two TD passes to Gary Knafelc, while Emerson Wilson added 87 yards on the ground and a score.
1963	USC 14, Colorado 0	In Eddie Crowder's first game as head coach, CU opens for the only time in its history against the No. 1 team in the nation. The Buffs hold their own, limiting the Trojans to 230 yards on 75 plays (but have just 83 yards of its own).
1965	Colorado 0, Wisconsin 0	The Buffs and Badgers battle to a 0-0 tie in Madison, the third-to-last scoreless tie in Division I-A history as the two combine in "hot and sticky" conditions for just 496 yards of total offense.
1971	Colorado 31, LSU 21	Charlie Davis rushes for 174 yards and two TDs in win at No. 9 LSU, the catapult to a 10-2 season and No. 3 rank.
1977	Colorado 27, Stanford 21	Former longtime (1989-2012) CU linebacker coach Brian Cabral goes nuts as he racks up 25 tackles in CU's win.
1979	Oregon 33, Colorado 19	The Buffs fall in the much ballyhooed first game for new head coach Chuck Fairbanks; it's also the first game televised by a fledgling sports network named ESPN that went on the air one day earlier.
1981	Colorado 45, Texas Tech 27	Walter Stanley hauled down five catches for a CU record 222 (it still stands today), as CU's first game after a 1-10 season in 1980 exorcises some demons. Randy Essington throws for 345 yards in the win.
1989	Colorado 27, Texas 6	In addition to Hagan's effort (see above) the CU defense stifled Texas in limiting the Longhorns to 268 yards.
1990	Colorado 31, Tennessee 31	Mike Pritchard subs for Eric Bieniemy at tailback and rushes for a CU season opener record of 217 yards as the Buffs open what would be their national championship season with a tie against Tennessee in Anaheim in the inaugural Disneyland Pigskin Classic.
1992	Colorado 37, Colorado St. 17	Kordell Stewart takes over from Darian Hagan and passes for 409 and 4 TDs in the win over the Rams.
1995	Colorado 43, Wisconsin 7	The NFL plucked off 10 CU '94 starters in the April draft, but new coach Rick Neuheisel readied the Buffs in fine fashion as CU drilled Wisconsin in Madison. Koy Detmer threw for 267 yards and three TDs as CU built a 26-7 halftime lead.
1998	Colorado 42, Colorado St. 14	Mike Moschetti throws for 257 yards and 3 TDs in his first CU game and the first contest between the two in-state rivals in Denver at the old Mile High Stadium.
2003	Colorado 42, Colorado St. 35	Joel Klatt comes in unsung and exits as the national player-of-the-week as he threw for 402 yards and 4 TDs in a 42-35 thriller over the Rams. CSU pulls even late, but Bobby Purify's 9-yard TD run wins it with :40 left.
2004	Colorado 27, Colorado St. 24	CU led the entire way, but CSU had a chance to steal it at the end; the Rams had a first-and-goal at the CU 1 with just under a minute left, but the Buffalo defense rose to the occasion and stuffed two plays, the last as time ran out, to seal the win. The Rams had fought back from 17-0 and 27-17 deficits.
2007	Colorado 31, Colorado St. 28 (overtime)	It had to happen eventually, as the CU-CSU series had been oh so close but lacked an overtime affair. No longer; Kevin Eberhart's 22-yard field goal tied the game at 28 with 0:13 left and then made a 35-yard boot in the first OT to lead CU to the win. Cody Hawkins debuted at quarterback and completed 18-of-31 passes for 201 yards and two scores, with another frosh redshirt, Scotty McKnight catching eight of those for 106 yards and a TD. CU rallied from 11 down late in the third quarter and likely sealed the Rams' fate after Terrence Wheatley's end zone interception in OT.
2013	Colorado 41, Colorado State 27	Paul Richardson caught 10 passes for 208 yards and two touchdowns and Connor Wood completed 33-of-46 passes for 400 yards to enable Mike MacIntyre to win in his first game as CU's head coach, just the second to do since 1932.
2020	Colorado 48, UCLA 42	Delayed until Nov. 7 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, CU zooms to a 35-7 second quarter lead and then holds off a UCLA rally. Jarek Broussard rushed for 187 yards and three touchdowns in his CU debut, as he had missed two full seasons after ACL knee surgeries.

SCORING FIRST IN A SEASON? CU IS 27-2 SINCE 1967

Colorado has won 29 of its last 31 season openers when scoring first, which included a 20-game winning streak from 1967 through 2005; the Buffs had that run snapped in 2006 by Montana State (losing 19-10 at home), with the only other loss in 2014 when Colorado State rallied from being down 17-7 to score the game's final 24 points to take a 31-17 verdict in Denver. Otherwise, you have go back to 1966 to find the last time the Buffs scored first and lost an opener (CU scored its only points of the game on a field goal in a 24-3 loss to Miami, Fla.). The other 23 openers in this span? CU is 4-18-1 when the opponent scored first, with the wins coming in 1969 (a 35-14 win over Tulsa after falling behind 7-0), in 1995 (a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana after trailing 3-0), in 2003 (the 42-35 conquest of CSU after the Rams jumped ahead 7-0) and in 2005 (a 31-28 win over CSU after the Rams got the jump up late in the first quarter by 7-0). CU has currently won its last five season openers.

Since 1950, CU has averaged 5.2 yards on the first play from scrimmage. Of the 71 plays for 369 yards, CU has passed just 16 times (completing 12). CU has not scored on the first play from scrimmage in this time frame, and has just one turnover (lost fumble) on the first play of the year (in 1990; *—at Anaheim; #—in Denver). NOTES: CU did score the first time it touched the ball in the 1975 season opener. The late Mike McCoy returned a California punt 61 yards for a touchdown two minutes into the game. The last time Colorado scored on its first offensive play of any game was at Arizona on Nov. 8, 2014: Shay Fields scored a touchdown on a 75-yard pass from Sefo Liufau just 11 seconds into the game in Tucson.

QUARTERBACK DEBUTS

A list of all quarterback starting debuts can be found in CU's media guide on page 173; whoever starts the 2021 opener will be the 52nd player since 1959 to start a game at the position for the Buffs, the 20th in a season opener (26-24-1 record overall, 10-9 in the opener). And whomever it is, it will be a freshman, either a "super freshman" if it's Brendon Lewis, or a true freshman (Drew Carter, Jordan Woolverton). The last freshman to start a season opener at quarterback was Cody Hawkins in 2007 (he was a redshirt frosh); no true freshman has ever started a season opener for Colorado, and of the previous 51 players, only 12 were freshmen (six true, six redshirts). Those previous performances (*—season opener):

NOTES: Eleven players have recorded CU's "first score of the year" on two occasions, but no one has done it three times (three quarterbacks have thrown two TD passes on the first score of the year). The only known time in school history that the Buffaloes have scored on the first a player touched the ball came in 1975, when Mike McCoy returned a punt 61 yards for a touchdown against California in Boulder (sans the kickoff). In 2016, C Alex Kelley became the first offensive lineman to score CU's first points of the year (fumble recovery). *—first points scored in school history (touchdowns were worth 4 points in 1890).

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. NORTHERN COLORADO

Colorado leads the all-time series by a 10-2 count (6-1 in Boulder, 4-1 in Greeley), as all games were played last century between 1900 and 1934; thus, it has been 83 years since these two Rocky Mountain Front Range schools, located roughly 50 miles apart, have played. One time members of the same conference (Rocky Mountain Athletic), they split apart after in 1938 when the Buffaloes and six other members of the league formed a new conference (Mountain States, also called the Skyline or Big Seven).

FUN FACT: The last time the two played before the 2017 game, Friday, Oct. 12, 1934, Colorado was a month shy of adopting the nickname “Buffaloes” and Northern Colorado was known as Colorado Teachers College (but did go by the nickname “Bears”). It was also the first night game that CU played within the state’s borders.

McCAFFREY TO MAKE DEBUT AGAINST BUFFS, FORMER COACH

Ed McCaffrey was hired on December 12, 2019 as Northern Colorado’s head coach -- but after the pandemic hit, many Big Sky Conference schools had the option of competing in a shortened season in the spring or sitting out the year altogether; UNC chose the latter. Thus McCaffrey will make his collegiate coaching debut against the Buffaloes this Friday night, Sept. 3. On the opposite sideline will be Karl Dorrell, who as an assistant with the Denver Broncos was McCaffrey’s position coach for three seasons (2000-02).

▶ He played in 33 games with Dorrell while with the Broncos, catching 176 passes for 2,314 yards and 12 touchdowns; the numbers would be considerably higher, but as many will recall, in the 2001 opener against his former team (Monday night, Sept. 10 versus the N.Y. Giants), he suffered a fractured leg and was lost for the remainder of the season (the terrorist attacks on the east coast occurred the next morning).

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Since the start of the 2013 season, Colorado is 19-3 in non-conference regular season games (19-5 including bowls). CU won its only non-league game last year (20-10 over San Diego State, a game that replaced a contest against USC three days after the Trojans cancelled due to COVID). Most of the games have been against Colorado State (6-1), and then FCS opponents (6-0) and then other Group of 5 schools (5-1); CU was 2-0 against Nebraska and 0-1 versus Michigan (the bowl losses came to former Big 12 rivals Oklahoma State and Texas, in the 2016 and 2020 Alamo bowls, respectively).

- ➔ This is one of 117 FBS vs. FCS games in 2021 (nine Pac-12 schools play one – with eight against Big Sky teams; Stanford, UCLA, USC play all FBS opponents).
- ➔ Colorado is 7-2 all-time against FCS opponents (first game in 2006), winning six straight; it includes a 2-2 mark against Big Sky members (does not include UNC and MSU games when both were conference members in the 1920s and/or 1930s).

COLORADO 41, NORTHERN COLORADO 21

SEPTEMBER 16, 2017

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — It took Colorado longer than many expected to administer the knockout punch, but the Buffaloes survived a Northern Colorado rally, then pulled away in the second half to collect a 41-21 win at Folsom Field.

It was the first meeting between the two programs since 1934.

Bufs quarterback Steven Montez established career highs in attempts (41), completions (29), yardage (357) and touchdowns (four) while running back Phillip Lindsay ran for 151 yards and a score for his eighth career 100-yard game. The victory gave CU its first 3-0 start since 2008 and just the second since 1999.

The victory also extended CU's win streak at Folsom Field to eight, the longest since a 10-game home win streak from 1993-95.

After not giving up a touchdown in their first two games, the Buffs saw that streak come to an end in a hurry. The Bears forced a CU punt on the Buffs' first possession, then turned around and marched 70 yards in six plays for a touchdown, getting a 33-yard scoring pass from Jacob Knipp to Alex Wesley to take a 7-0 lead.

But Colorado then put 28 unanswered points on the board and looked ready to blow the game wide open.

The Buffs went 75 yards in six plays to tie the score, getting a 4-yard scoring toss from Montez to Devin Ross. The Buffs caught a break on UNC's next possession, recovering a bad snap to Knipp at the UNC 5-yard line and Colorado needed just one Phillip Lindsay run to take a 14-7 lead.

CU then added two more scores in the second quarter. Montez ended an 80-yard scoring drive with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Shay Fields, then finished a 73-yard march with a 29-yard touchdown pass to Bryce Bobo.

But almost before the announced Folsom Field crowd of 44,318 could settle in for the rout, the Bears had other ideas. UNC answered CU's fourth touchdown with a 90-yard scoring drive, finishing with a 48-yard pass from Knipp to Wesley to cut Colorado's lead to 28-14 at the half.

The Bears then took the second half opening kickoff and marched 75 yards to paydirt, with Knipp throwing 27 yards to tight end Michael McCauley for the score. At that point, Colorado's one-time 21-point lead had been cut to seven, 28-21.

The Buffs, though, finally pulled momentum back to their sideline, but not before losing a fumble deep in UNC territory. On their next possession, however, they drove for a 33-yard field goal from James Stefanou to bump their margin back to double digits, 31-21.

Montez and Co. then added an insurance touchdown in the fourth quarter, driving 85 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Montez completed the drive with a 14-yard scoring toss to Jay MacIntyre, his fourth touchdown pass of the day. MacIntyre became the fourth CU receiver in the game to catch a touchdown pass, joining Fields, Ross and Bobo. All four starting receivers also had at least four catches, with Ross totaling eight for 143 yards and Fields eight for 69.

The Buffs completed the scoring with a late fourth quarter field goal.

Overall, CU finished with 569 yards offense — 357 in the air and 212 on the ground — and the Buffs had scoring drives that covered 75, 80, 73 and 85 yards.

Defensively, ILB Drew Lewis had nine tackles and cornerback Isaiah Oliver had an interception for the second game in a row. The Buffs also stiffened defensively after UNC's initial score in the second half, and did not allow the Bears past midfield for the rest of the game.

GAME NOTES

Colorado opened 3-0 for the 41st time in its 128-year history, but for the first time since 2008 and just the second time since opening 5-0 in 1998 (3-0 also in 2004) ... CU leads the series with UNC by a 10-2 count; this was just the fifth time in 12 games both teams scored, and the first that both did in double figures; the 62 points combined were the most ... The game time of 3:22 despite halftime being reduced to 15 minutes ... CU lost the coin toss after winning 10 in a row, but has still won 15 of the last 17 dating back to last year's opener ... Colorado gained at least 100 yards in each quarter for the first time this season and for the first time since last year's Washington State game (CU did it three times in 2016) ... The Buffaloes went 123:52 before allowing their first touchdown this season ... This marked the 41st time in school history the Buffaloes had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game (31-10 in such contests): TB Phillip Lindsay (26-151 rushing) and WR Devin Ross (8-143; receiving); and the duo was seven yards receiving short of becoming the first 150/150 in CU annals (previous closest was nine rushing yards on two occasions) ... CU's receivers nicknamed themselves the "Blackout Boyz," mainly led by the four starters: seniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross and junior Jay MacIntyre. Those four combined for 26 catches for 342 yards (13.2 per), with four touchdowns and all 16 first downs earned in the passing game ... Though just with six career starts (and a 5-1 record), QB Steven Montez has already tied a significant CU record as he now has career 400-yard total offense games.

THIS FALL'S TEXAS A&M GAME HEADED TO DENVER

Empower Field at Mile High to Host September 11 Game

This September's football game between the University of Colorado and Texas A&M University will be played at Empower Field at Mile High, CU athletic director Rick George announced on Jan. 25. The game, set for Sept. 11, is one of top non-conference games on the college schedule for the 2021 season.

Texas A&M finished 9-1 in the abbreviated 2020 season, along with a No. 4 final ranking in both major polls (Associated Press and USA Today/Coaches). Colorado was 4-2 and entered the rankings briefly after opening 4-0; CU coach Karl Dorrell was the Pac-12 Conference coach of the year by both the AP and league coaches and was the FWAA's First-Year Coach of the Year as well.

"We are very appreciative of Rick George and the staff at CU for the opportunity to once again host college football at Empower Field at Mile High," said Jon Applegate, Director of Events & Booking for Empower Field. "Our stadium has become a top destination for sporting events, and we look forward to hosting two premier college football programs in our building in September."

Colorado leads the series with the Aggies by a 6-3 count, with all but one of the games coming when both were members of the Big 12 Conference. The Buffaloes won the last meeting in 2009, rallying from 11 down to win 35-34 with two minutes remaining in the game. A&M will become the fourth former conference member CU will play since leaving the league in 2011, as CU has played Nebraska twice and Oklahoma State and Texas once.

The teams were supposed to play in College Station last year (on Sept. 19), but it was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. When the schools signed the contract back in 2015, a provision was in place for the return game to be played in Boulder or Denver.

"We were disappointed that we couldn't play in College Station this year, but we worked closely with Ross Bjork (A&M athletic director) and officials at Empower Field at Mile High to bring the game to Denver," George said.

The A&M game will not be part of CU's annual season ticket package, but season ticket holders will have the first opportunity to purchase tickets later this spring before sales will be open to the general public. Season ticket renewals for the 2021 season will go out in March. Anyone desiring more information on CU season tickets are invited to call 303/492-8282.

The Buffaloes have a long history of playing games in Denver, non-conference as well as league contests, dating back to when Stanford visited in 1904 with the game played at the long-since demolished Broadway Park

(6th Avenue & Broadway), the first of 19 times CU would square off at field adjacent to Cherry Creek. When CU was a member of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, it played rival Colorado Mines 14 times in Denver, many on Thanksgiving Day. The last of those games was in 1922, and it would be 66 years before the Buffs played a neutral site game there again, the first of 19 against Colorado State.

Colorado is 54-35-3 overall in games played in Denver, 26-11-1 against teams from other cities or states and 28-24-2 versus schools or teams based in the city. The bulk of the games have come against the University of Denver (17-12-2), Colorado State (13-6), the Denver Athletic Club (3-12) and Colorado Mines (9-4-1).

NOTES: The kickoff time was for 1:30 p.m. with FOX set to televise the game nationally ... Joe Davis and Brock Huard will be behind the mikes calling the game on the 20th anniversary of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the East Coast ... The Buffs will still have their usual six home games at Folsom Field in 2021, beginning with the opener against Northern Colorado on Friday night, Sept. 3 ... The Buffs then host the University of Minnesota on Saturday, Sept. 18. The Pac-12 released the schedule of conference games on March 2, as CU will host South Division rivals Arizona and Southern California, with North Division members Oregon State and Washington also set to visit Boulder ... Texas A&M has its season opener at home on Sept. 4 against Kent State ... The A&M game will fall on the 20th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the east coast ... CU leads the series 4-1 in Boulder while the teams split four games at College Station ... Texas A&M left the Big 12 for the Southeastern Conference, joining in 2012, or one year after CU departed for the Pac-12.

FIFTY-YEARS AGO: 1971 FLASHBACK SERIES GAME 1 (Colorado 31, LSU 21)

Colorado was coming off a bit of a disappointing season; the Buffs had finished 8-3 in 1969, capped by manhandling Alabama in the Liberty Bowl and the outlook was for a similar season as the calendar welcomed the 1970s. And when CU opened with a road win at Indiana and then a 41-13 pulverizing of No. 4 Penn State at home, ending the Nittany Lions' 34-game unbeaten streak, CU climbed to No. 8 in the nation. But the Buffs lost three of the next four to drop out of the rankings and went on to finish fourth in the Big Eight and played a rather uninspired game against Tulane in the Liberty Bowl to finish 6-5.

Thus, CU was unranked heading into the '71 season, with a roster full of talented sophomores who had yet to see any collegiate action as freshmen were ineligible at the time (they became so the following year). LSU opened the season ranked No. 9, and was the defending SEC champion, coming off a 9-3 record (and a 29-7 mark dating back to the end of the '67 season). A Buffalo team with so many sophomores filling key roles came in as 14-point underdogs.

While it was "just" 75 degrees at kickoff, 90 percent humidity and a sellout crowd of 70,099 packed into Tiger Stadium awaited Eddie Crowder's young Thundering Herd (it was the largest regular season attendance at the time to witness a Colorado game, second only to 72,552 that saw CU beat Clemson in the '57 Orange Bowl). Crowder raised eyebrows stating ahead of the game that he had a "gut feeling" his Buffaloes would win the game, something few agreed with. What lied ahead was a sound thrashing in which CU led for over 37 minutes and what one Tiger beat writer would scribble, "The Buffaloes were appropriately attired in black jerseys for the final rites in Tiger Stadium."

On the last play from scrimmage in the first quarter, CU struck first when sophomore quarterback Ken Johnson found Willie Nichols for a 7-yard touchdown, with J.B. Dean's PAT kick giving the Buffs a 7-0 lead. LSU tied the game at 7-7 just a few minutes later, using a 39-yard kickoff return and a 15-yard late hit penalty to begin its game-tying drive at the CU 25. It remained tight at halftime, the Buffs owning a 10-7 advantage after Dean booted a 35-yard field goal with 4:35 left before intermission.

As it would happen several times during his career, a kick return score by Cliff Branch would open up the game for CU. This time, after CU turned the ball over on its first possession of the second half, Carl Taibi's sack of LSU quarterback Bert Jones forced the Tigers into a three-and-out and a punting situation. Branch both dazzled and silenced the sellout crowd with an electrifying 75-yard punt return for a TD and a 17-7 lead. And when sophomore Charlie Davis scored later in the quarter on a 3-yard run, LSU was facing an insurmountable 24-7 deficit. LSU clipped the lead back down to 10, and then John Stavely intercepted Jones on LSU's next drive, setting up a Davis 47-yard ramble to put the game out of reach. The Tigers added a cosmetic touchdown late on an interception return to account for the final score.

Davis made quite the splash in his first collegiate game, rushing 20 times for 174 yards and the two touchdowns, with John Tarver gaining 92 on 18 carries (prompting a postgame comment by LSU coach Charlie McClendon: "Colorado's running backs were some of the best we've ever seen. Have you ever seen such big backs with great speed?").

The CU defense forced six turnovers (four interceptions) and held the Tigers to just 227 net yards; John "Bad Dude" Stearns had seven tackles and returned two interceptions 88 yards. It was LSU's worst loss since a 31-7 drubbing to Alabama in 1965. The Buffs would go from unranked to No. 12 in the polls with the win and returned home to play Wyoming in Folsom Field's first game with an AstroTurf field. LSU went on to finish with a 9-3 record, Sun Bowl champions and a No. 10 final ranking.

Note: CU was fully integrated by that time; LSU's first African-American players took the field in 1972 but were on the team as freshmen in '71. Unlike problems CU's blacks endured at the Liberty Bowl in Memphis in 1969, there were no reports of any racial incidents or intimidation that occurred from Alabama fans (and the team, when it sent out 35-40 players to greet CU's captains, one of whom was black).

IT TOOK A LOT OF TIME

CU did not commit a turnover in a season opener for the 10th time in its history; the Buffs have never opened a season with two turnover-free games. The first one in 2020 took place 7:15 into the game (Stanford picked off a Sam Noyer pass), with the 67:15 into the season the ninth-longest on the clock before CU's first of a season. It took a deflected pass and then an interception by UMass early in the third quarter for CU to have its first in 2014, marking the longest CU had ever played into a season before committing its first (92 minutes, 28 seconds); the 10 season opener turnover-free seasons and when the first occurred:

SEASON OPENER REVIEW

Statistically speaking, Colorado had one of its best season-opening games in school history in 2018 against Colorado State. CU's 596 yards of total offense in the contest were the most in a season opener since 1994, when that Buff team (which went 11-1 and finished the year ranked No. 3 in the coaches poll) put up 649 yards of offense in a 48-13 win over Northeast Louisiana. That 1994 season-opening total is the highest yardage gained for any game to begin a season in Buffalo history, but the 596 yards vs. CSU comes in at No. 2. It was also just the ninth time since 1946 that Colorado has gained more than 500 yards of offense in the season opener. What was equally impressive was the Buff defense allowing just 284 yards of total offense a week after the Rams put 657 in the books against Hawai'i. CU outgained CSU by 312 yards on the night, the third largest advantage over an opponent in a season-opener in program history. Here are the largest margins of victory in a CU season opener in history (not including contests against local high schools at the turn of last century):

LARGEST MARGINS OF VICTORY IN SEASON OPENER

Year	Opponent	Score	Margin	Year	Opponent	Score	Margin	Year	Opponent	Score	Margin
1954	DRAKE	61- 0	61	1923	BRIGHAM YOUNG	41- 0	41	1995	at Wisconsin	43- 7	36

GONZALEZ JOINED PRESTIGIOUS LIST

CB Christian Gonzalez became the 19th known Buffalo as a true freshman on defense to crack the 300-play mark in snaps played from scrimmage – the third to do so on this team, as he was in for 305 snaps in starting all five games. In 2013, Addison Gillam set the bar for true frosh when he played in 838 snaps from scrimmage, and he topped CB Greg Henderson who had set the mark two years earlier with 823. Twelve of the 20 players on the list have done this over the last decade but the list goes back to 1987, when the stat was first tracked. A look at the most snaps played by true defensive freshmen since 1987 (regular season only; minimum 300):

Addison Gillam, ILB (2013).....	838	K.J. Trujillo, CB (2019)	438	Alfred Williams, OLB (1987).....	320
Greg Henderson, CB (2011).....	823	Terrel Smith, S (2010).....	414	Ty Gregorak, ILB (1997).....	316
Chidobe Awuzie, CB/N (2013).....	643	Jashon Sykes, ILB (1998).....	392	Na'im Rodman (2019)	314
Kenneth Crawley, CB (2012).....	642	Deon Figures, CB (1988).....	358	Yuri Wright, CB (2012).....	310
Jordan Dizon, ILB (2004).....	597	Josh Tupou, DT (2012).....	343	Christian Gonzalez, CB (2020)	305
Marques Mosley, FS (2012).....	524	Kanavis McGhee, OLB (1987).....	323
Israel Antwine, DE (2018).....	457	Tedric Thompson, SS (2013).....	323

Gonzalez already made some previous history this season when he started the opener, just the 14th true freshman dating back to 1973 to start in CU's first game of the season. His five starts tie for the ninth-most among those 14 players, but had CU played a full schedule, would have likely wound up near the top.

THIRD DOWN DOMINANCE

The Buffaloes have done a 180 when it comes to third down defense in 2020. Last year, opponents converted at a 47.4 percent clip, which was 125th in the NCAA (or fifth-worst), which included a gaudy 41-of-65 on 3rd-&-4 or less (63.1 percent). This year, including the bowl, the enemy was just 27-of-85 overall (31.8 percent, 13th-best nationally), and just 7-of-24 in tries of one-to-four yards. The Buffs recorded 12 quarterback sacks on third downs as well, whereas the opponent had just two on CU signal callers. OLB Carson Wells had 4½ of those third down sacks and ILB Nate Landman three.

REVERSALS

Pass Efficiency Defense Improvement. In the regular season, the Buffaloes ranked sixth in the nation in pass efficiency defense with a 104.96 rating; including the bowl, the final number increased to 126.00 (33rd in the land), but it was still a dramatic improvement over the 2019 final rating of 154.68, which was 121st nationally. In 2016 when CU won the Pac-12 South, the team was fifth in the NCAA with a 104.25, but saw three seniors graduate into the NFL (CB Chidobe Awuzie, SS Tedric Thompson and CB Ahkello Witherspoon). CU dipped to 54th in the nation in 2017 (125.70 rating) and then to 64th in 2018 (130.06), before free-falling in '19.

CARRYING THE ROCK

Colorado averaged 44.8 rushing attempts per game in 2020 – when not including quarterback sacks which the NCAA has long counted as rushing attempts – that ranked sixth in the nation for 2020. A look at the top dozen teams in the country in carrying the rock:

DID YOU SAY UTES?

Stealing from My Cousin Vinny and the last Fred Gwynne's classic line, as of press time, Bowling Green conducted a survey on who is carrying the most freshmen on their rosters. They did the survey based on high schoolers that graduated either in the class of 2020 or the class of 2021 (so, not counting anyone from 2019 that did not lose a year of eligibility by playing four games or less).

School	Class of '20	Class of '21	Total

Northern Illinois	33	44	77
Bowling Green	44	27	71

MUSIC IN HIS BLOOD: Assistant head coach Darrin Chiaverini has music in his blood, though not to the extent of his father, Eddie "Day" Chiaverini, who played the rhythm guitar for The Lively Ones, a rock and roll band in the early 1960s. One of their songs, Surf Rider, made the soundtrack of the 1994 blockbuster movie, Pulp Fiction, playing over the opening and closing credits. You can hear it here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CXfQYRjxvc>.

STILL TOP 10: Colorado remains tied for 10th in the NCAA for the most conference championships won with 26. Through 2020, Oklahoma leads with 50, followed by Nebraska (46), Michigan (42), Ohio State (39), Southern California (37), Tulsa (35), Alabama (32), Texas (30), Fresno State (28) and then Colorado, Clemson and Utah (26).

RALPHIE UPDATE Program manager Taylor Stratton has had a buffalo in training this summer in the hopes that she will CU's latest buffalo, Ralphie VI. If all continues to go well, an announcement at any time will be forthcoming for her debut sometime during the 2021 season. With the pandemic forcing the Pac-12 to declare no mascots or cheerleaders on the field, 2020 was the first season since Ralphie I debuted in 1967 that CU did not take the field behind a buffalo. Ralphie V retired after 12 seasons in 2019.

BROUSSARD: BACKGROUND TO BRUISING & RECORD SETTING DEBUT

Background: Sophomore TB Jarek Broussard was a member of CU's 2018 recruiting class: he initially tore the ACL in his left knee in high school, but by the time he arrived on campus, he was still in the rehab progression; he thus redshirted that fall (2018). Then in 2019, near the end of CU's August camp, he again tore the ACL in the same knee and subsequently had a second surgery (on Sept. 6) and again missed the full season. He began a second rehabilitation immediately, and would spend the remainder of the fall, all of winter, and then the entire lockdown due to the COVID-19 pandemic in Boulder working with CU's sports medicine staff with his rehab. "He has done an incredible job with his rehab and is truly a lesson in delayed gratification," said Andrew Hamstra, Colorado's head football trainer. He finished as the third-leading rusher in 2020, averaging 149.2 yards per game and was a co-recipient of the Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award.

When he was finally cleared to participate, he started showing flashes in CU's 2020 fall camp and emerged as the starter at tailback for the season opener. He came out raring to go in Colorado's 48-42 opening win over UCLA on its roster. Of the seven occasions where a player rushed for at least 100 yards in his first game in a CU uniform, he recorded the most yards (note: freshmen were ineligible from 1953-1971; #—in Denver):

As far as the first start at the tailback position, Broussard's effort ranked as the third-most yards gained (all other players in the top 10 appeared in games at previous positions (Pritchard started his only game at tailback in his career in the '90 season opener versus Tennessee (subbing for Eric Bieniemy; he and Flannigan appeared at halfback on several occasions before CU moved to the I-Bone in 1989 and went with one featured back instead of two halfbacks); Anderson was a quarterback for two-plus seasons who was moved to tailback the third game of the '69 season). The top efforts in a first start at tailback in CU history (a—first game in a CU uniform):

➔ Broussard earned the Pac-12 Conference's Offensive Player-of-the-Week honor for his efforts, just the second Buffalo running back to do so since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011; Phillip Lindsay won in 2017 for the Arizona State game. Rodney Stewart won it twice in the Big 12 Conference (2009 vs. Kansas, 2010 vs. Kansas State), otherwise you have to go back to 2002 when Chris Brown earned it twice (against UCLA and Kansas).

➔ Not only did Broussard set the record for the most rushing yards gained (187) in the first game in a CU uniform, he also set the record for yards from scrimmage (208) and all-purpose yards (221).

BROUSSARD PART 2: JOINS MORE ELITE COMPANY

Broussard had a second 100-yard game at Stanford (27-121), and in the process became the seventh Buffalo (on eight occasions) to rush for 100 or more yards in the first two games of a season, and the first to do so in 15 years, or when TB Hugh Charles did it against Colorado State and New Mexico State to open the 2005 season. He joined TB Charlie Davis (1971) and TB Marcus Houston (2000) as the only three to do it in their first two career games,

▶ With 124 yards against San Diego State, he joined Davis as the only ones to rush for 100 or more in the first three games of a CU career.

▶ Then, with 301 yards at Arizona, he has now rushed for more yards in the first four games of a season than any player in Colorado history, and is the first to hit the century mark or more for the first four games of a CU career. He also became just the fourth player in Division I-A/FBS since 1996 to gain 100 or more yards in the first four games of his career (chart below).

▶ Against Arizona, his 155 yards in the second quarter (on eight carries) set a CU record for rushing yards in a quarter and was also a school record for all-purpose yards in a quarter. His 184 rushing yards in the first half is the second-most for a half, behind 206 by Davis against Oklahoma State in Boulder on Nov. 13, 1971.

▶ And in the win over the Wildcats, he set the school record for most 50+ yard rushes in a game with three (75, 72, 59); several had two.

▶ Broussard accounted for 38.6 percent of CU's total offense in 2020 (813 of 2,105 yards); in 1994, CU's Heisman Trophy winner, Rashaan Salaam, ran for 2,055 yards, which was 37.7 percent of CU's 5,448 yards on offense.

▶ Broussard leads the Pac-12 in rushing (162.6 yards per game); he can become the first Buff to lead a conference since 2002 (TB Chris Brown, 153.4, Big 12).

Broussard earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors (AP, Coaches), the first CU running back make first-team all-conference since Chris Brown in 2002. Also named the league's Offensive Player of the Year (Coaches, co-honors from the AP), he's the first since Brown to earn a similar honor (2002, Big 12 for Brown), and the sixth on offense in CU history, joining QB Darian Hagan (his position coach, 1989 Big 8), TB Eric Bieniemy (1990, Big 8), WR Charles E. Johnson (1993, Big 8), TB Rashaan Salaam (1994, Big 8, his Heisman Trophy Year) and Brown.

BOUSSARD EARNS MAYO CLINIC COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR HONORS

Sophomore tailback Jarek Broussard was named one of three annual recipients of the Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award, the tri-coordinators of the award announced on January 2.

A member of CU's 2018 recruiting class, Broussard initially tore the anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in his left knee in high school, but by the time he arrived on campus, he was still in the rehab progression; he thus redshirted that fall. Then in 2019, near the end of CU's August camp, he again tore the ACL in the same knee and subsequently had a second surgery and again missed the full season. He began a second rehabilitation immediately, and would spend the remainder of the fall, all of winter, and then the entire lockdown due to the COVID-19 pandemic in Boulder working with CU's sports medicine staff with his rehab.

After an injury sidelined Alex Fontenot, the returning starting tailback, Broussard moved from third on the depth chart into the top spot by the time CU opened its 2020 season against UCLA on Nov. 7. He would have a record-setting performance against the Bruins in CU's 48-42 win, rushing for the most yards (187) in the first game in a CU uniform, as well as for those for yards from scrimmage (208) and all-purpose yards (221). He was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week for his performance, an honor he would earn four weeks later when he rambled for 301 yards in a 24-13 Buff win at Arizona, just the third 300-yard single game rushing performance in school history.

Also named the Pac-12 Conference's Offensive Player of the Year (by both the AP and the league coaches), he finished the regular season as the NCAA's second-leading rusher, averaging 162.6 yards per game; three-fourths of the way through the bowls, he's still third, with a 149.2 per game norm (895 yards in six games) after gaining 82 yards in the Alamo Bowl against Texas. He became just the fourth player in the NCAA since 1996 to open a career with four consecutive 100-yard rushing games, with Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson the last to do so in 2004.

"Winning the Comeback Player of the Year Award is a great honor, Broussard said. "I'd like to thank the Mayo Clinic, CoSIDA, the AP and Fiesta Bowl for making this award possible and honoring me with it.

"First and foremost, this is a team award," he continued. "I really need to recognize and thank the support I received from my coaches and teammates, especially my offensive line, and all the people in sports medicine who were with me throughout. They all believed in me. Even making a finalist for this prestigious award showed that all the hard work coming back from two knee surgeries was worth it, and winning it is truly special."

Broussard is CU's first major national postseason award winner since 2002, when Mark Mariscal won the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter.

"I remember back in March, we weren't sure if he'd be ready by the fall; he wasn't ready to participate in spring practices had we been able to have them," Colorado head coach Karl Dorrell said. "So he was one of those guys that was just on the peripheral of our thoughts, and it was, 'We'll see if he's ready for camp, where he would be in our depth chart, things like that.'

"So for that scenario to happen back in March and how we ended camp, he was our best player in that position," Dorrell added. "He's come a long way, from where we weren't sure if he was going to be healthy enough to play to becoming the conference's player of the year, a first-team All-Pac-12 performer and now one of the three comeback players of the year. A truly great story of perseverance."

Broussard's position coach, Darian Hagan, echoed Dorrell's sentiments, and along the way gave the CU sophomore some very sound advice.

"I am so proud of Jarek, how far he's come after what he's been through," Hagan said. "It takes a lot out of you not only physically but mentally to comeback after one knee surgery, much less two. But he was all-in to do everything he needed to do in his rehabilitation and more, it proves good things can happen when perseverance prevails."

Hagan should know; he suffered a torn ACL in the '91 Orange Bowl but worked hard to return for his senior season that fall, not only in his third year as CU's starting quarterback, but also as the team's punt return to help his professional prospects.

He knew how much potential Broussard had when he recruited him out of Dallas' Bishop Lynch High School. That carried over to CU's preseason camp.

"Just watching him with the ball in his hands, we had nobody on our defense who could tackle him," Hagan said. "I knew that he had that special trait that you want as a running back. Then, unfortunately, he gets hurt again. I sat down with him and told him he needed to be all-in with his rehabilitation, and that he needed to make his injured leg bigger and stronger than his healthy one. He took it to heart and everyone can see the results."

"He has done an incredible job with his rehab and is truly a lesson in delayed gratification," said Andrew Hamstra, Colorado's head football trainer.

This is the third year of the award, created in 2018 by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) in association with the Associated Press and the Fiesta Bowl Organization; student-athletes are nominated by their respective schools. The other two recipients for the 2020 honor were Kenneth Horsey, a sophomore offensive lineman for the University of Kentucky, and Silas Kelly, a senior linebacker at Coastal Carolina University. The three football student-athletes overcame injury and illness to excel on the field this season. They were selected by a vote of Associated Press college football writers and were officially recognized during the PlayStation® Fiesta Bowl.

LANDMAN BACK; BUTKUS SEMIFINALIST, NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK RETURNS FOR SUPER SENIOR YEAR

Prior to suffering a torn Achilles tendon last Dec. 12 against Utah (he has since returned to 100 percent), senior ILB Nate Landman had a “landmark” two weeks, beginning with a monster effort in CU’s 20-10 win over San Diego State. Against the Aztecs, he recorded 11 tackles (10 solo), which included six stops at or behind the line of scrimmage: three quarterback sacks, a tackle for loss, and two tackles for zero gains. He had four third down stops, as all three of his sacks were on third downs, and added a pass broken up (also on third down) and a touchdown save. He was in for all 59 snaps on defense, and on special teams duty, he added a forced fair catch on punt coverage. On Sunday (Nov. 29), Landman was selected as the Walter Camp Football Foundation’s National Defensive Player of the Week, the first defensive Buffalo to earn the honor since CB Terrence Wheatley for his three interception game at Texas Tech in 2007. Otherwise, you have to go back to 1996 for the player previously honored, FS Steve Rosga against Oklahoma State.

On Monday (Nov. 30), the selection committee for the 36th annual Butkus Award announced 16 semifinalists, which included Landman. The Buffaloes have two previous winners, Alfred Williams (1990) and Matt Russell (1996); two runner-ups, Ted Johnson (1994) and Jordon Dizon (2007), and one other semifinalist, Greg Biekert (1992). Russell also finished fourth for the honor in 1995.

Landman led the team in tackles with 61, and also has team-bests of 13 third down stops (including two on fourth down), and seven tackles for zero which also gives him a team-high of 14 stops at or behind the line of scrimmage when including his eight tackles for losses. (Career numbers and ranks below)

The Butkus Award was eventually won by Notre Dame’s Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah.

And later on that same Monday, he was named the Pac-12 Conference’s Defensive Player of the Week for the second time this season (also for CU’s win at Stanford); the last CU defensive player to win twice in the same season was SS Tedric Thompson in 2016 (for the Stanford and Utah games). Other players on the defense who have been recognized twice in a season as conference players of the week include DE Bill Brundige (1969), ILB Bill Roe (1979), DT Art Walker (1989), OLB Darin Schubeck (1986) and FS Steve Rosga (1996); Roe is the only one to also win in back-to-back games. Landman has now earned the honor three times, joining Rosga, ILB Greg Biekert as three-time defensive POW selections in their careers.

But wait – there was more: on Dec. 1, the FWA named him as the Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week, the second time in his career that he has been afforded that honor (also for the 2018 Nebraska game). He’s the third Buffalo to win the Nagurski honor since its inception in 2001; Wheatley won it in 2007 for the Texas Tech game. Then on Dec. 8, the Maxwell Club tabbed him as the Chuck Bednarik National Defensive Player of the Week for his monster game at Arizona (17 tackles, 14 solo, three for losses including a sack, four third stops and two tackles for zero). He is also one of 24 semifinalists for the Lott Impact Award.

LANDMAN’S LANDMARKS

All-American candidate and senior ILB Nate Landman is off to another fine start, having earned two national and conference player of the week honors and named a Butkus Award semifinalist. A roll call of what he has accomplished in a CU uniform:

- He has cracked the top 10 of CU’s all-time tackle list, as his 338 tied for 10th in all-time in total stops, while his 233 unassisted stops rank seventh (he is also tied for 12th in tackles for loss with 34, is third in third down stops with 46, first in fourth down stops (8) and tied for 32nd in quarterback sacks (11, but tied for third among inside linebackers).
- He recorded 200 career tackles in just 24 career games on defense and hit 300 in 33 career contests.
- He had 137 tackles in 2019 (112 solo), or 11.4 per game; he finished with the most stops since ILB Jordon Dizon racked up 160 in 2007 (120 solo). The 137 tied him for the 14th-most in a single season at Colorado.
- His 112 solo tackles in 2019 ranked as the second-most in a single season, the fourth Buff to reach the century mark. Only ILB Jordan Dizon had more (120 in 2007); ILB Greg Biekert (105 in 1990) and ILB Ray Cone (102 in 1982).
- He had 16 unassisted tackles at Oregon in 2019 (16TT), tied for the fifth-most solo stops in school history.
- He has 18 career double-digit tackle games (three this season, eight in 2019); his personal best in tackles (19, 11 solo) came at Utah in 2018.
- Landman’s 137 tackles in 2019 were one more than the next two players combined (136; 69 by Davion Taylor and 67 by Mikial Onu); since CU started keeping tackle statistics in 1964, that’s the first time that the team leader had more than the next two players combined.
- In his first career start on defense (2018 opener against CSU) he was in on 14 tackles (four solo), tying for the most tackles in a first career start.

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffaloes rank on some of CU's all-time lists through the 2020 regular season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career numbers for players past and present will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ WR DANIEL ARIAS is second in forced fair catches (21), is tied for third in first downfield credits (10) and is 20th in special team points (51).
- ⇒ TB JAREK BROUSSARD is 63rd in rushing yards (813).
- ⇒ TB ALEX FONTENOT is 60th in rushing yards (917).
- ⇒ ILB NATE LANDMAN is tied for 10th in total tackles (338), is seventh in unassisted tackles (233), is tied for 12th in tackles for loss (34), is tied for 32nd in quarterback sacks (11); tied for third-most by an inside linebacker); is third in third down stops (46) and first in fourth down stops (8).
- ⇒ PK EVAN PRICE is 88th in scoring (66 points) and is tied for 19th in field goals made (14).
- ⇒ WR DIMITRI STANLEY is 55th in receptions (51) and is 64th in receiving yards (604).

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (75.6 percent of the entire roster—active and inactive—as of August 25: 90 of 119 players, including three inactive). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: Colorado 34, California 33, Texas 23, Florida 4, Arizona 3, Alabama 2, Arkansas 2, Georgia 2, Mississippi 2, Washington 2, Illinois 1, Iowa 1, Louisiana 1, Massachusetts 1, Michigan 1, Nevada 1, North Carolina 1, Oregon 1, Tennessee 1, Virginia 1, Wisconsin 1. That's 21 states total along with AUSTRALIA (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

- ➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Five Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: WR Daniel Arias (Santa Domingo, D.R.), OLB Joshka Gustav (Germany), ILB Nate Landman (Zimbabwe) and P Josh Watts (Tasmania).
- ➔ BY CLASS: 3 graduate transfers; 3 seniors (3 fifth-year), 23 juniors (3 second-time), 21 sophomores (16 second-time, 2 third-time); 69 freshmen (45 true, 14 redshirt/2nd-year; 10 third-time).

AND THE J'S (STILL) HAVE IT

Statistics show that more first names in the U.S. begin with the letter "J," followed by M, S, D and C. The Buffs take that to the extreme: on the 2021 Colorado roster, almost 22 percent on the team has first names that begin with J: 26 players overall who go by 25 different J names. The list:

Jack (2)	Jalen	Janaz	Jayden	Jaylon	John	Josh	Justin
Jackson	Jamar	Jared	Jayle	Jeremiah	Jonathan	Joshka
Jake	James	Jarek	Jaylen	Joe	Jordan	Joshua

THIRD DOWN SUCCESS

Colorado converted on third down at 41.3 percent (74-of-179) in 2019, a figure that ranked 48th nationally and was the third-best by the Buffaloes last decade. The Buffs averaged 7.0 yards to go per third down try (opponents averaged 6.1 yards to go and converted at 47.4 percent, matching the lowest average-to-go since 1984, when we started tracking this stat). Conversely, CU has averaged under 7 yards to go just twice since 2003 (6.3 in 2016 and 6.5 in 2014; the Buffs' all-time low is 5.8 to go in 1985, the first year it ran the wishbone on offense).

- ➔ Thus far in 2020, and granted, just a five-game sample, but the Buffs are converting at a 46.8 percent clip, averaging 6.9 yards to go on 79 tries (and one of those "misses" came on a kneel-down to end the UCLA game). The Buffs are 35-of-64 on 3rd-&-10 or less (54.7), as 2-of-15 on 3rd-&-11 or longer has brought the average down. Opponents are converting at a 33.8 clip (just 10-of-30 on 3rd-&-6 or less, 33.3) despite averaging 7.4 yards to go. CU has been fairly balanced, going 17-of-33 rushing and 20-of-46 passing.
- ➔ CU's best season of third down conversion percentage came in 1989 – 53.9 (83 of 154, including 30-of-30 on 3rd-&-1) – followed by 1990 (48.9), 1954 (46.8), 1966 (46.0), 1987 (45.2), 1957 (45.1) and 2016 (44.5).

IN & OUT (Not the Burgers)

ILB Nate Landman and OLB Carson Wells formed a pretty solid combination in 2020, so much so that CU's long-time linebacker coach, Brian Cabral, has nicknamed the pair "The Dynamic Duo," a la Batman & Robin. Landman's accomplishments are detailed on the next two pages (and unfortunately was lost for the season after suffering a torn Achilles tendon versus Utah), but Wells has contributed nearly if not just as much. Wells finished third on the team with 34 tackles (26 solo), and was the NCAA leader in tackles for loss with 2.7 per game (13½ overall, including 4½ sacks). He also has five passes broken up, five pressures and eight third downs stops to go with an interception. Two of the third down stops were on pass breakups, thus he had 20 tackles at or behind the line of scrimmage.

- ➔ Both of Wells' two career interceptions have come against UCLA and its stellar quarterback, Dorian Thompson-Robinson.

DTR is 1-2 against Colorado as a starter, and in both losses, he failed to complete over 50 percent of his passes.

- ➔ Wells had three or more tackles for loss in the last four regular season games (3, 4, 4, 3), the first Buffalo to have four in a row with that many since Alfred Williams in 1990. He then had 2½ in the Alamo Bowl against Texas (the NCAA recognized him with 16 in six games; CU does not include bowl stats).

FUMBLE ME OR FUMBLE ME NOT

Hanging on to the football is one thing that the Colorado Buffaloes have done most of last decade, and they took it up a notch in 2019. The Buffaloes did not fumble the ball in six games, and had just 11 fumbles, and "11" is actually a bit misleading: three were charged to the team on bad snaps and a fourth happened on a muffed try at scooping up a punt; the three that were lost were on special teams (two on kickoff returns and that muffed punt; the offense never lost a fumble. The Buffs set a record with four consecutive games without a fumble, which included a stretch of 446 touches (scrimmage plays, punts/placement kicks, returns, fair catches). For the year (1,021 touches), that was one for every 92.8 touches. The ones most likely to fumble, the running backs, had just three in 367 (rushes, receptions, returns).

- ▶ Since the start of the 2013 season, Colorado has a total of 122 fumbles (losing 51) — out of 8,451 touches (or 1 in for every 69.3 touches).
- ▶ CU's tailbacks have just 23 over the last seven-plus seasons in 2,614 carries (or just one in every 113.7 attempts).
- ▶ 2020 Numbers: 6 fumbles (two on poor center snaps) in 458 touches (375 scrimmage plays; 4 interceptions, 79 special teams: returns, punts and placements);
- ▶ CU's first lost fumble of the year came 193 minutes and 31 seconds into the season (fourth game), a school record for the longest into a year before losing one;
- ▶ CU had no fumbles in 2020 opener against UCLA (no fumbles in 34 of its last 91 games);
- ▶ CU had no fumbles in six games in 2019, tying the school record set in 2014 and 2017;
- ▶ CU has lost just 18 fumbles dating back to the 2016 season (out of 76 fumbles overall in this 55-game span).
- ▶ CU lost just 3 fumbles in 2019, none on offense (two on kickoff returns, one on a muffed punt return); that tied for the third fewest in the NCAA.

ALMOST PERFECT IN CLOSE

Dating back to nine games into the 2016 season, Colorado has had 77 goal-to-go situations, scoring 75 times (or 97 percent of the time); 58 of the scores have been touchdowns to go with 17 field goals. The only non-scores came on a drive ending on downs in 2018 against Oregon State (in overtime) and an interception last year at Oregon. IN THE POLLS / SOME HISTORY

Colorado re-entered the national polls on Dec. 6, 2020 (No. 21 AP/No. 22 USAT), after last being ranked on Oct. 13, 2018 (No. 25 in the USA Today/Coaches poll), and was last in the AP poll on Oct. 6, 2018 (No. 19; the Buffs were a season-high No. 18 the same day in the coach's ballot). The Buffs were not ranked in 2017, and had climbed to as high as No. 9 in both polls (twice) in 2016; CU had not been ranked previous to '16 since 2005. Colorado owns the ninth longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the fifth week of 1997, CU had a run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 305 times in its history, the 29th most all-time; the Buffs have finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 12, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

700 CLUB

Colorado became the 25th school to reach the 700-win mark with a 44-28 win over California in 2017; the Buffs have an all-time record of 714-51736 (a .578 winning percentage). In addition to being 26th on the all-time win list, CU is 36th in winning percentage (29th for schools with 1,000 or more games played in the FBS). THAT REDSHIRT RULE

Beginning with the 2018 season, incoming freshmen can now play in up to four games but not lose a year of eligibility; this also applies to anyone else on the roster. In any year they play in four games or less, they get the year back (and the four can be at any point during the season; they do not have to be the first four games). Also if a player redshirts as a true freshman and then suffers a season-ending injury within the first four games of another season, he's now eligible for a sixth-year without having to lose two years to injuries and go through the old petition process. A perfect example would be Derek McCartney, who redshirted as a true freshman in 2013, and was injured in game three of his fourth-year (2016); he would have been awarded a sixth-year of eligibility under this rule change.

If this rule had been permanently in place since freshmen were allowed to play, here are some notable Buffaloes that would have earned a full season back due to either playing in four games or less at some point in their career due to injury, and others who were simply inserted at the end of games over the course of the season when the outcomes had already been decided (assuming the four-game maximum would have applied in 11-game seasons prior to 2006; *—denotes true freshman):

WR *Dave Logan, 1972	Debuted late in week two in a 56-14 win over Cincinnati, when he had his lone reception of the year. He was on the travel squad, but appeared just a couple of more times.
TB *James Mayberry, 1975	Appeared late in several games, had 16 rushing attempts and one reception.
DT George Smith, 1982	Injured in the fourth game of the year, he had 34 tackles, four for losses when he was lost for the year.
WB *Mike Pritchard, 1987	Appeared in six games and 17 rushes and threw seven passes.
QB *Darrian Hagan, 1988	Appeared in five games (plus the Freedom Bowl), had 38 rushes and threw seven passes.
QB *Vance Joseph, 1990	Appeared in four games, had 13 rushes and threw seven passes (and was next in line to play in the '91 Orange Bowl).
QB *Kordell Stewart, 1991	Appeared in two games, had 18 rushes and threw two passes.
QB *Koy Detmer, 1992	Pressed into duty to rally CU over Minnesota in game three, started two others and appeared in seven overall; but he was also injured early in the fourth game in 1995, so either would have applied.
ILB Jashon Sykes, 2001	Injured in the fourth game of the year, he had already racked up 33 tackles and 3½ sacks
QB *Joel Klatt, 2002	Played three snaps late against Baylor in game seven, appeared in a handful of others after, including on the punt team.
OLB Derek McCartney, 2016	Had already utilized his redshirt year, so when lost for the season with a torn ACL in game three at Michigan, he lost that year.

And there were several players in 1984, when CU resurrected its junior varsity team for one year; several played in the three JV games and then saw some time afterward in some of the last six varsity games. These included WR Lance Carl, ILB Don DeLuzio, TB Dion Dyson, TE/P Keith English, WR Drew Ferrando, QB Mark Hatcher, P Barry Helton, TB Sam Smith, CB David Tate and FB Anthony Weatherspoon.

AND WHO BENEFITTED THE FIRST YEAR? SEVEN BUFFS ... THIRTEEN DO SO IN YEAR TWO

In 2018, there were seven Buffaloes who benefitted from the NCAA's new redshirt which permits players to play in up to four games and not lose a year of eligibility provided they had a redshirt year available to them (no fifth-year seniors played in four games or less who were lost for the season due to injury, as exceptions could have been made in those instances). Those players, with the games they appeared in parenthesis (*—no longer on team): OLB *Jacob Callier (4), PK *Tyler Francis (2), P Alex Kinney (4), PK Evan Price (2), WR Dimitri Stanley (3), DB *L.J. Wallace (1) and ILB *Jake Yurachek (1).

► In 2019, the rule could be applied to 12 players who meet the criteria of four games or less: CB Mehki Blackmon (4), OT Frank Phillip (2), OLB Joshka Gustav (3), ILB Marvin Ham (4), OL Austin Johnson (1), OLB Jamar Montgomery (4), DT Lloyd Murray, Jr. (2), OLB Alec Pell (4), ILB Quinn Perry (1), PK Evan Price (4), WR La'Vontae Shenault (4) and TE Luke Stillwell (4).

SEASON OPENERS: UNDERCLASSMEN STARTERS

The depth is always fluid leading up to the first game, but with seven underclassmen (one freshman, six sophomores) atop the opening season depth chart, it would be the ninth most upperclassmen that would start an opener dating back to 1995. Nine frosh/soph started each of the last two years, but never more than three frosh. A look at the most underclassmen starters for the Buffaloes over the last 26 seasons:

OFF-SEASON FULL-TIME STAFF CHANGES

Wilson, Maxie Promoted On Defense, Cook On Offense; Smith, Turley New Additions

Head coach Karl Dorrell announced several staff changes in January and February. He promoted Chris Wilson, in his second stint as a member of the University of Colorado's football staff, from defensive line coach to defensive coordinator; he's continue to coach the linemen. Safeties coach Brett Maxie was promoted to defensive passing game coordinator and Bryan Cook promoted to tight ends coach. He also the hiring of Mark Smith as inside linebackers coach and Shannon Turley as CU's new strength and conditioning coach.

Wilson and Maxie certainly know football, and particularly defense. The pair have coached in 693 games combined on the college and professional levels, all on the defensive side of the ball, between 49 seasons between them. Wilson will continue to coach the defensive line.

Wilson replaces Tyson Summers, who was let go in early January while Turley replaces Drew Wilson, who did not have his contract renewed; Smith takes over the inside linebackers that Summers tutored in 2020. Cook, who replaces Taylor Embree (hired by the New York Jets in January), is beginning his third year on the Colorado staff, originally joining as the director of quality control for the defense in 2019 under then-head coach Mel Tucker. Snapshots of all:

THE VERTICAL GAME (EXPLOSION PLAYS)

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 57 “explosion” plays in 2016, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that was the most by a CU team since 2007 (49 in 2017). Here’s a look at CU’s 20-plus plays in recent memory, not including bowls, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

100/300

The Buffaloes have historically done well when holding the opponent to under 100 yards rushing and under 300 yards total offense. Dating back to the start of the 1985 season, Colorado is 105-15-1 when the opponent fails to reach 100 yards on the ground, and 106-20-1 when the enemy is held under 300 yards overall. CU is 12-1 and 17-0 in each, respectively, dating back to the start of the 2013 season (1-0 in 2020).

AHEAD IN A BIG WAY

From 2006-15, the opponent had almost always had a distinct advantage in TSL (time spent in the lead), but CU reversed that and then some in 2016. The Buffs led for 457 minutes and 20 seconds, or 59 percent of the time; opponents for just 24 percent and the score tied the other 17 percent. CU led for more minutes in 2016 than it had in all 11 previous years after just eight games (and when it held the edge over an entire season just twice: 2005 and 2010. But alas, the opponent held a slight edge in both 2017 and 2018 (bowl games not included):

TURNOVER FREE

In 2017, Colorado saw its record run of consecutive quarters played without turning the ball over end at Washington State with a fourth quarter; the streak ended at a school-record 16 straight quarters (253:52 in total time), and nearly went four straight games without one as there was just 3:20 remaining in the 28-0 loss to WSU when the streak came to a close. Colorado played 17 games out of 74 under Mike MacIntyre without a turnover, the highest percentage in any CU head coach’s tenure over two years since World War II. Take a look (TFG—turnover free games; TG—total games):

Coach	TFG	(Record)	TG	Pct.	Coach	TFG	(Record)	TG	Pct.	Coach	TFG	(Record)	TG	Pct.
Mike MacIntyre	17	(11-6)	74	23.0	Dal Ward	5	(2-1-2)	110	4.5	Jon Embree	5	(1-4)	25	20.0
Bill McCartney	23	(18-3-2)	153	15.0	Bill Mallory	1	(1-0)	57	1.7	Karl Dorrell	1	(4-2)	6	16.7

Eddie Crowder	6	(5-1)	118	5.1	Brian Cabral	1	(1-0)	3	33.3

- Karl Dorrell became CU’s third straight head coach to not have his team turn the ball over in his first game (vs. UCLA).
- Colorado has played 13 turnover-free games in its last 41, easily the school-best for a span of that few number of games. And in 2017, it nearly had a fifth—an interception on a Hail Mary as time ran out at Arizona State was the lone turnover of that game.
- Post-World War II (dating back to 1946), Colorado has played 89 turnover-free games, owning a record of 58-27-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls).
- Colorado played at least three turnover-free games in each of the last five seasons (2015-19), easily the longest streak in school history; the 18 games without a turnover over those five seasons are the most in any five-year span in school history, besting 12 mistake-free games from 1987-91.
- Colorado has now had at least one turnover-free game for 11 straight seasons (2010-20, 30 total), now the longest run in school annals: the Buffs had at least one for 10 straight years (1998-2007, 19 total); CU also had a run of nine consecutive seasons (1987-95, 22 total).

ELEVEN HAVE DASHED 100 ... OR FURTHER

In 2017 (Oct. 28), then-junior DB Nick Fisher joined a very exclusive club when he returned an interception 100 yards in the fourth quarter to close out CU’s 44-28 win over California. It was the 11th 100-yard play in CU history, the fourth interception return of that length. However, the NCAA seals returns at a 100-yard maximum; if it allowed returns to be scored like the NFL, counting end zone yardage, Fisher would have been credited with a 109-yard return (CU’s head statistician is also the Broncos). It was the first 100-yard interception return since 1996, when FS Steve Rosga pulled it off against Oklahoma State (his would have been 105 yards). ILB Marcus Burton came close in 2005, when he picked one off at the half yard line and raced 99 yards for a score – at Oklahoma State.

FATHER-SON SCORING

When WR Dimitri Stanley scored the first touchdown (and points) of his career with his 13-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter, he joined his father Walter ('81) as the fourth father-son duo to score points for the Buffs (the list; year is the last season on the Buffs):

Father: Larry Brunson, 1971 (3 TDs)
Father: Marc Walters, 1986 (2 TDs)

Son: Matt Brunson, 2001 (2 TDs)
Son: Ryan Walters, 2006 (1 TD)

Father: Dick Anderson, 1967 (2 PATs)
Father: Walter Stanley, 1981 (5 TDs)

Son: Blake Anderson, 1994 (1 TD)
Son: Dimitri Stanley, 2019-20 (3 TDs)

FATHER-SON "100"

WR Dimitri Stanley recorded his first 100-yard career receiving game when he caught six balls for 126 yards and a TD in CU's 35-32 win over Stanford. His father, Walter, caught five passes for 222 yards and two scores in the 1981 season opener against Tech. The younger Stanley thus joined his dad as the only father-son duo in school history to record 100-yard receiving games. How common is that at the same school around the nation? Here's a look from a survey of other schools, as apparently it is fairly uncommon (number in parenthesis is the number of 100-yard games for each):

School	Father, Seasons (#)	Son, Seasons (#)
Colorado	Walter Stanley, 1980-81 (1)	Dimitri, 2019-20 (1)
Florida	Lee McGriff, 1972-74 (5)	Travis, 1995-98 (7)
Illinois	John Wright, Sr., 1965-67 (12)	John, Jr., 1988-91 (1)
Kentucky	Dicky Lyons, Sr., 1966-68 (1)	Dicky Jr., 2004-08 (3)
Stanford	Ed McCaffrey, 1987-90 (8)	Christian, 2014-16 (2)
UCLA	George Farmer, 1967-69 (2)	Danny, 1996-99 (11)
Wisconsin	Al Toon, 1982-84 (6)	Nick, 2008-11 (4)

► And be on the alert for a potential "Brother-Brother 100." With freshman LaVontae Shenault in the regular rotation at receiver (he caught his first three career balls for 60 yards at Stanford), his older brother Laviska had eight 100-yard receiving games for the Buffaloes. They would be the first brother-brother combo to do it if the younger Shenault has a 100-yard game.

INSIDE-THE-20

(FACT: CU invented charting the red zone in 1981; as in the NFL, the 20 is not in the red zone in its stats)

The Buffaloes, after going through a period where they had their frustrations once penetrating the opponent 20-yard line, has been very efficient over the last six-plus seasons in the stats' original name, "Scoring Percentage Inside-the-20." Dating back to the start of the 2014 season, Colorado is 248-of-294 in the "Red Zone" (84.3 percent, 175 touchdowns/73 field goals). In 2020, the Buffaloes are off to a great start, scoring 17 of 18 penetrations with 14 touchdowns. Here's a look at CU's best Red Zone performances on offense in its history; numbers were researched from 1953 to the present (bowl games not included):

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Colorado State; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Stanford, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Arizona State, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Notre Dame and San Diego State. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (14), Texas (6), Missouri (5), Utah (4) and LSU, Michigan, Ohio State, Oklahoma State (3).

STIFLE, EDITH! (I'm so 70s). Since losing in Lincoln on Nov. 12, 1988 against Nebraska by a 7-0 score, the Buffaloes have won 75 straight games when holding the opponent to 13 points or less. CU has won 29 in a row when the enemy has scored 14 or fewer (since a 14-13 setback at Georgia in 2006); and have won 24 straight when the opponent has been held to 17 or fewer points (dating to a 17-10 loss at Iowa State in 2009, Colorado's last loss at home when allowing 13 points or less was the 1987 season opener against Oregon, when the Ducks left Boulder with a 10-7 win).

FUN FOUR FACT. Four schools can boast that they have won a national championship in football, have had a Heisman Trophy winner, a U.S. Supreme Court Justice and at least one man that either walked on the Moon or traveled there to and from. Those are Colorado, Michigan, Texas and Army-West Point. For CU, that would be Rashaan Salaam (Heisman), Byron White (Supreme Court) and Apollo command module pilots Jack Swigert (Apollo 13) and Stuart Roosa (Apollo 14). Other schools that would join the above with at least one astronaut (who was not on an Apollo mission) include California, Navy, Stanford and Wisconsin.
CARRY OUT TO FIVE: Throw in a U.S. Open (golf) winner, and the only schools with all five are CU (Hale Irwin, Steve Jones) and Texas.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 49 occasions (38-11 when this occurs). Since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011, it has occurred 19 times overall (once each in 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2019 and now 2020; four times in 2016, thrice in 2017 and four times in 2018). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. The full list can be found on page 183 of the 2020 CU Media Guide.

GRADUATION REVIEW

(Through August 2021) Over the last 20 years, Colorado has had 358 of its 393 seniors graduate, translating to 91.1 percent in this time frame (including 17 of the 20 seniors in 2019); these are the 2001-2020 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last 13 years, 243 of the last 263 have graduated (92.4%), with 10 of those 20 either playing in the NFL or attempting to do so and haven't yet been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It is one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.794 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2021 semester is its highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has 21 straight semesters over a 2.5. Its spring semester ('21) GPA of 2.8514 is also an all-time non-COVID best.

100+ RETURN YARDS NOT THAT COMMON

Often lost in all the conversation about total offense and defense are return yards – but they often swing a game. In 2017, CU owned a 396-234 edge, and had two games with 100-plus return yards (116-9 versus Texas State and 126-5 against Cal). CU's had just five games since 2002 with over 100 return yards in a game (and have had two in the same season just that once since 2002; the last time with three was 2001). In 2016, CU had 175 against UCLA in its 20-10 win, and they played a huge role, accounting for one touchdown via punt return and setting up CU's lone offensive score via an interception return. It was the most return yards by the Buffs since Oct. 26, 2002, when they had 183 in a 37-13 win over Texas Tech (125 interception, 44 punt, 14 fumble). The other two games with 100-plus came in 2008 against Eastern Washington (135) and in 2013 against Central Arkansas (125).

- ▶ In 2018, CU had an overall edge of 372-275, which included 87-0 against CSU and 32-(-2) at Nebraska.
- ▶ In 2019, the opponent held the advantage by 322-106, largely from the last seven games, with a margin of 296-55.
- ▶ For the ultimate example of how rare 100 return yards can be, look no further than CU's game at UCLA in 2017. The Buffs held the edge in return yardage ... 1-0. There were no punt or fumble returns, no miscellaneous returns, and the only yard game on the lone interception and return of the game. And then against Arizona, the Wildcats had a 6-0 edge (a single punt return). Through 11 games in 2019, CU had not allowed a non-offensive score; but Utah's punt return score in the finale prevented the Buffaloes not allowing an opponent to record at least one touchdown by a return since 2006 (and it shouldn't have counted; a blatant block in the back went unnoticed).
- ▶ In 2020, the opponents hold a slight edge, 213-179, with the bulk of the yards coming on an 81-yard punt return (CU) and a 57-yard interception runback (SDSU).

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the 2015 Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

- 99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)
- 99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays)
- 99—vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)
- 99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)
- 99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays)
- 99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays)
- 99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays)

Karl Dorrell is in his second season as the head coach at Colorado, and his seventh as a head coach on the collegiate level; he was named CU's 27th full-time coach on February 23, 2020: he is 4-2 at Colorado and owns an overall 39-29 record. A truly veteran coach with a pedigree second to none, he started as a graduate assistant at his alma mater (UCLA) in 1988 and has spent the last 33 seasons coaching football, with a little more in college (19 years) than in the National Football League (14). He joined the Buffaloes from the Miami Dolphins, where he coached the wide receivers in 2019 and had just been promoted to assistant head coach, but Dorrell was no stranger to Colorado and Boulder. Bill McCartney hired him ahead of the 1992 season as CU's receivers coach, his first Division I-A/FBS job; he left CU for one year at Arizona State in 1994, but when Rick Neuheisel was named head coach after McCartney retired, he returned for his second stint at the school, this time as offensive coordinator, receivers and quarterbacks coach for the 1995-98 seasons until he accompanied Neuheisel to the University of Washington in 1999. The lure of the state of Colorado brought him back a third time, in this instance as the wide receivers coach for the Denver Broncos for the 2000, 2001 and 2002 seasons until his alma mater came calling and named him its head coach. He was 35-27 in five seasons at UCLA (2003-07), and would then go on to spend 12 of the next 13 years in the NFL.

- ◆ Dorrell, 57, has coached in a total of 434 football games in his career (68 as a collegiate head coach; 106 as a Division I assistant for 174 total in NCAA Division I/FBS; 22 as an I-AA/FCS assistant and 10 in Division II); plus 228 as an assistant in the NFL (224 regular season, four playoff).
- ◆ He has coached in eight bowl games (1993 Fiesta, 1993 Aloha, 1996 Cotton, 1999 Holiday, 2003 Silicon Valley, 2004 Las Vegas, 2005 Sun, 2006 Emerald).
- ◆ The 2020 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, he was previously the co-coach of the year in 2005 when he was in his third year at UCLA (with USC's Pete Carroll).
- ◆ In his two previous stints at Colorado, the Buffaloes were 50-19-2 (17-5-2 under Bill McCartney, 1992-93; 33-14 under Rick Neuheisel, 1995-98).
- ◆ He is the third African-American head football coach at Colorado, as Jon Embree headed the program in 2011-12 and Mel Tucker (2019). He is one of four in the Pac-12: David Shaw (10th year at Stanford), Herm Edwards (third season at Arizona State) and Jimmy Lake (first-year at Washington).
- ◆ How much did Dorrell and his family love Colorado? They had a house built here in nearby Lafayette as he decided that when his coaching days were over, they wanted to retire to the state. Thus, this is definitely his dream job and he was actually headed to town for a few days prior to planning to attend the 2020 NFL Combine when he got the call from athletic director Rick George about interviewing for the vacant head coaching position.
- ◆ In his first two stints at Colorado, he coached three All-Americans (Michael Westbrook in 1992, Charles Johnson in 1993, Rae Carruth in 1996), ___ All-Conference (Big 8 or Big 12) performers on various levels (receivers Westbrook, Johnson, Carruth, Phil Savoy all first-team, along with Darrin Chiaverini, Javon Green and James Kidd and quarterback Mike Moschetti). Johnson, Westbrook and Carruth were all first round NFL draft picks.
- ◆ Dorrell is not the first to be hired as the head coach at Colorado who previously was an assistant coach at the school; in fact, he is the fifth. He joins an impressive list of those who spent time in Boulder as an assistant before being named head coach: Frank Potts (assistant for the 1927-39, 1941-43 and 1946-47 seasons), Rick Neuheisel (1994), Gary Barnett (1984-91) and Jon Embree (1993-2002). Dorrell joined the Buffs the season after Barnett was named head coach at Northwestern, and Neuheisel actually had replaced Dorrell on the Colorado staff under Bill McCartney.
- ◆ Dorrell is also the third CU coach to take over the program after signing day: Chuck Fairbanks arrived in Boulder on April 4, 1979 after a lengthy court battle with the New England Patriots to release him from their contract, and McCartney was hired on June 9, 1982 after Fairbanks left to coach New Jersey in the fledgling United States Football League (USFL).
- ◆ Dorrell was the seventh Colorado head coach to have their debut at the reins of the program televised nationally (ESPN2), as he joined Chuck Fairbanks (ESPN; 1979 vs. Oregon), Rick Neuheisel (ABC; 1995 at Wisconsin), Gary Barnett (FOX; 1999, Colorado State in Denver), Jon Embree (ESPN2; 2011 at Hawai'i), Mike MacIntyre (CBS-SN; 2013, Colorado State in Denver) and Mel Tucker (ESPN; 2019, Colorado State in Denver).
- ◆ A 1986 graduate of UCLA, earning his bachelor's degree in Psychology, also earning a minor in Business Administration. A member of Terry Donahue's seventh recruiting class at UCLA, he lettered four years at wide receiver for the Bruins (and actually played a game against CU in Boulder in 1982; he caught one pass for 23 yards from Rick Neuheisel). He played his entire Bruin career for Donahue, who would coach UCLA for 20 seasons (1976-95).
- ◆ CONTRACT. Dorrell was officially named CU's 27th full-time head coach on Feb. 23, 2020, and signed a 5-year contract worth $18 million overall ($500,000 base; $1.2 million radio/TV income & public appearances; $1.2 million with promotions and fundraising income), plus various annual incentives that add to $300,000. The radio/TV income and promotion/fundraising components will increase annually by $100,000; thus $3.2 million for the first year, $3.4 for the second, etc., not including additional income from any of several incentive components. The contract runs through Dec. 31, 2024.
- ◆ Dorrell is not a voter for the 2020 USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll; coaches are selected by a random draw. CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has had a vote now for the 29 of the last 34 seasons.

Of the 23 coaches hired to lead new programs in 2020, only one won his first four games: Karl Dorrell; just two others won their first three: Jim Traylor (UTSA) and Jimmy Lake (Washington); see all first-year coaches on page 41.

DORRELL / DID YOU KNOW

- In his first two seasons at Colorado under Bill McCartney (1992-93), he coached the wide receivers; he was tasked with taking over coaching a position that was returning to the spotlight after the Buffs had been a wishbone (1985-87) and I-Bone (1988-91) team the previous seven years.
- He returned as offensive coordinator from 1995-98 under Rick Neuheisel, also coaching the receivers. Neuheisel coached the quarterbacks from '95 through '97, then added the quarterbacks to Dorrell's coaching chores in 1998. When Neuheisel was hired by Washington in January 1999, Dorrell accompanied him and became the Huskies offensive coordinator and receivers coach, where he coached future NFL receiver Dane Looker.
- In his first game ever as an offensive coordinator – for Colorado on Sept. 2, 1995 at No. 21 Wisconsin, he called one of the best games by any offensive coordinator on the road against a ranked team in college football history. The Buffs rolled up 507 yards of offense (278 passing, 229 rushing) in a 43-7 win over the Badgers. It remains the most points and yards on the road against any opponent, much less a ranked foe, in the first game by an offensive coordinator in CU history.
- In his career he has coached a College Hall of Famer (Michael Westbrook); a Fred Biletnikoff Award finalist (Rae Carruth); three pairs of 1,000-yard receivers in the same season (Westbrook, Charles Johnson at CU; Rod Smith and Ed McCaffrey at the Denver Broncos; Brandon Marshall and Eric Decker at the N.Y. Jets); four Pro Bowl selections (Smith in 2000, 2001; Matt Schaub in 2012; Marshall in 2015); three first round draft picks (Westbrook, No. 4 overall; Johnson, Carruth), and five CU receivers in all being selected (Phil Savoy in '98 and Darrin Chiaverini in '99).
- In his two previous stints at Colorado, he coached seven receivers who are still among the top 20 in school history in receptions and yards. And of the 18 games at Colorado where two receivers gained 100 or more yards in the same game, he coached in seven of those contests.
- Dorrell's UCLA teams were 24-7 at home (77.4 winning percentage); that included a 6-3 mark against ranked teams. His 2005 team finished with a 10-3 record, as he was selected as the Pacific 10 Conference's co-coach of the year.
- In the history of college football, 655 different head coaches have led their teams to bowl games. Of those, only 32 coached their first five teams into the postseason, and Dorrell is one of those 32, as all five of his teams at UCLA played in postseason bowls. His streak is one of only five who are currently active among the 130 FBS head coaches: 12 seasons—Dabo Swinney, Clemson; 9—James Franklin, Vanderbilt/Penn State; 8—Gus Malzahn, Arkansas State/Auburn; 6—Blake Anderson, Arkansas State; 5—Karl Dorrell, UCLA (Colorado); next up: 4—Kirby Smart, Georgia. Others among the 32 include Tom Osborne, Nebraska (first 25 teams coached earned bowl invitations), Bob Stoops, Oklahoma (18), Lloyd Carr, Michigan (13), Phillip Fulmer, Tennessee (13), Jim Tressel, Ohio State (10), Pete Carroll, USC (9), Mike Leach, Texas Tech/Washington State (9), David Shaw, Stanford (8), Chris Peterson, Boise State (7), Troy Calhoun, Air Force (6), Larry Coker, Miami-Fla. (6) and Jimbo Fisher, Florida State (6). (Twenty-five have coached their first six teams into the postseason; 20 their first seven.)
- Developing Players. Throughout his career, Dorrell has been challenged to develop rookies as well as take veterans to the next level; examples:

Charles Johnson & Michael Westbrook, Colorado. Dorrell arrived at CU in an offseason where the Buffaloes were converting from an option offense for the previous seven seasons to a one-back, pro-style passing attack. But CU hadn't really recruited for that style of an offense so as a young coach, he had great challenge from the get-go. The end result? The pair combined for 133 receptions for 2,209 yards and 13 touchdowns, averaging a 16.6 yards per catch. The pair alone combined for more receiving yards than any of the previous seven CU teams had for a season.

Rae Carruth. Before his well-documented troubles after graduating from CU, Carruth was a first-team All-American receiver in 1996. He emerged from the shadows of former teammates Johnson and Westbrook to have back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons, joining Johnson as the only duo to accomplish the feat in program history at the time. Over his final two seasons, Carruth had monster numbers: 107 catches for 2,124 yards (19.9 yards per) and 17 touchdowns, with 75 of those receptions earning first downs.

Rod Smith, Denver Broncos. In his first five seasons in the NFL, he caught 257 passes for 3,811 yards and 25 touchdowns; with Dorrell as his position coach for three years (2000-02), he had 302 receptions for 3,972 yards and 24 TDs.

Ed McCaffrey, Denver Broncos. McCaffrey was in his 10th NFL season, his sixth with the Broncos, when he first came under the tutelage of Dorrell for the 2000 season. He would post career-high numbers that season: 101 receptions for 1,317 yards (with 9 touchdowns). In 2001, he suffered a broken leg in the season opener, but he would come back under Dorrell's supervision to start all 16 games in 2002, making 69 grabs for 903 yards and two scores.

Ashley Lelie, Denver Broncos. Dorrell had him for his rookie season in 2002, playing a significant role in his early development, when he emerged with the third-best numbers by the receivers on the team. Two years later, he would become a 1,000-yard receiver teaming with Smith.

Brandon Marshall, N.Y. Jets. Coming off a season with the Chicago Bears that saw him produce the lowest numbers of his career since he became a starter, Marshall rebounded the second time he was under Dorrell's coaching in 2015 to have his second best season in his 13-year career, catching 109 balls for 1,502 yards and a league-high 14 touchdowns. He had two 1,000-yard seasons with Dorrell earlier in the decade at Miami.

Robby Anderson, N.Y. Jets. Signed by the Jets as an undrafted free agent out of Temple, he started eight games as a rookie and had been a regular ever since. He caught 42 passes for 587 yards (two TDs) as a rookie in 2016, and under Dorrell's wing, caught 113 the next two seasons for 1,693 yards and 13 touchdowns, averaging a healthy 15.0 yards per catch.

DaVante Parker, Miami Dolphins. Parker at best was an average receiver in his first four years in the NFL. Dorrell coached him in his fifth season in the league, and finished with career highs across the board – 72 receptions for 1,202 yards and nine touchdowns – he really came on during the second half of the year when Dorrell's coaching really took hold (48 catches for 859 yards and six scores over the final nine games), averaging an "old school" 17.9 yards per catch during that span).

Davone Bess, Miami Dolphins. An undrafted free agent out of Hawai'i, Bess would blossom under Dorrell's coaching. He caught 54 passes as a rookie in 2008, and in four years with Dorrell as his position coach, he would catch 260 passes for 2,669 yards and 11 TDs. In 2010, he teamed with Brandon Marshall to form one of the top pass-catching duos in the league, their 165 combined receptions the most by a tandem in team history

Brian Hartline, Miami Dolphins. A fourth round pick out of Ohio State by the Dolphins in the 2009 draft, he was the fourth receiver on the depth chart while Dorrell was with the club. But he still got his coaching early on in his career, and when the top of the depth cleared due to attrition, he would emerge as a two-time, 1,000-yard receiver in 2012 and 2013.

Matt Moore, Miami Dolphins. Dorrell also parlayed his coaching influences when he has had the opportunity to coach quarterbacks. In 2011, he molded Moore, who had started 13 games in his first three years in the league, into the team's starter who completed 60.5 percent of his passes for 2,497 yards and 16 touchdowns (his 87.1 rating was the fifth-best in the AFC). Some eight years later, Moore has been one of the league top backup QB's, playing a key role at times in Kansas City's run to its first Super Bowl title in 50 years.

Matt Schaub, Houston Texans. In 2012, Schaub led the Texans to a 12-4 record and the AFC South Division title by passing for 4,008 yards and 22 touchdowns. His rating (90.7) was the fourth-best in the AFC and ninth-best overall in the league. It was his second best career among 16 seasons in the NFL (2004-19), and those numbers came in a year after he missed six games due to injury the year before.

CU, STANFORD LEAD IN AFRICAN-AMERICAN HEAD COACHES

CU is one of two schools on the FBS/Division I-A level to have had three African-American head coaches lead their football programs. WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT KARL DORRELL

BRIAN FLORES, Miami Dolphins Head Coach (2019-present)

"The University of Colorado hit a home run hiring Karl as their head coach. I'm excited for him to have this opportunity. He is a great teacher and excellent leader. He is a coach I would want my kids to play for."

BILL McCARTNEY, Colorado Head Football Coach (1982-94)

"Awesome, that's fabulous. Karl Dorrell is the real deal. He's genuine, he's authentic and extremely talented. I'm a Buff to the core, through and through, and this really excites me. This is a big, big deal and I am thrilled and overjoyed. Why? Because you have to get the right people in leadership, everything comes down to leadership. And with CU getting a man like Karl to lead the program, that's a feather in Rick George's cap. When Rick came on board for us (as recruiting coordinator in 1987), he improved our recruiting, and 30 years later, he's still getting it done."

ED McCAFFREY, Denver Bronco Receiver (1995-2003)

"Coach Dorrell is a true pro with a wealth of football coaching experience. I enjoyed my time with him as my position coach with the Broncos. His strong communication and intelligent leadership helped us achieve great success as a unit. His return to CU is a good hire for the program and will bring steady hand."

MIKE MOSCHETTI, Colorado Quarterback (1998-99)

"Karl is a smart, hard-nosed football coach who isn't flashy. When he says something, you will trust it, you will run through a wall for him. He has incredible experience, and he knows the challenges and in his previous stops coaching at Colorado in the 1990s, he has recruited to the academic challenges that coaches face with the high standards academic-wise at the University of Colorado. I was at the game in 2006 when his UCLA team beat No. 2 ranked USC and Pete Carroll that kept them out of the BCS title game. I can't wait to see what he does with the Buffs - we have been to just one bowl game in the last 12 or so years, and he led UCLA to five straight bowl games. He knows the tradition, and I know he's grateful for the opportunity to be a head coach again."

RICK NEUHEISEL, Colorado Head Football Coach (1995-98)

(Rick and Karl were teammates at UCLA.) "I'm very happy for Karl. Colorado definitely hit a home run. Karl's very knowledgeable, very passionate, and I know he loved his time in Boulder. His strong point is organization and leadership. He's always been an offensive guy, and by spending a lot of time in the NFL, he's learned even more. This is making me a bit nostalgic about the fun we had coaching together with the Buffs and when we played together at UCLA

- he was my go-to guy." (Neuheisel was a quarterback at UCLA, Dorrell his top receiver).

ROD SMITH, Denver Bronco Receiver (1995-2007)

"I want to say congratulations to Coach Karl Dorrell and the CU Buffaloes. I had personal experience with him, he took my game to a whole new level. I was doing really well, but when I got with him, in three years (under him) I had over 300-plus catches, pro bowls and all that stuff. He's a technician, he knows what he's doing, he's been around and he's studied with some of the best. I can tell you right now, this team, this program is about to take off. Coach Dorrell, I appreciate you and thank you for everything you've done for me and I'm looking forward to the CU Buffaloes go to a whole new level."

KORDELL STEWART, Colorado Quarterback (1991-94)

"Karl was and is a smart coach, understands all aspects of the game of football. When he was at Colorado when I was there, he had what I would call 'young energy,' to where I think Michael (Westbrook), CJ (Charles Johnson), Phil Savoy and the other receivers really respected him. He made them understand the game through the eyes of a quarterback, which isn't always easy to do. I'm excited about this opportunity for him. With his combination of head coaching experience at UCLA and his time as a position coach in the NFL, he brings a tremendous amount of credibility to the table. I would hope that the players on the team now and the incoming recruits will appreciate that - he's got the background that should earn him an enormous amount of respect. He understands how CU operates, understands the community, knows the lay of the land. It was important for Rick (George) to hire someone who understands the Colorado way and our tradition. Karl fits that mold of what CU is trying to do and will pick up the pieces that were broken with the last coach and put them back together. In time, he will make this thing really work."

MICHAEL WESTBROOK, CU All-American Receiver (1991-94)

"I'm glad to hear that someone with Karl's character will be CU's new coach. I loved Karl. He was a huge disciplinarian, but in both a good and tough way. It was definitely brought to your attention if you weren't doing what you're supposed to do. You come to realize that he'll be tough when he has to be, which is what young kids need, and in the end, that makes you a better player and a better person. He was very much like Bill McCartney in that manner, that was Karl's thing as well, they are cut from that same cloth. I know him, trust him, the program is in good hands and I'll enjoy coming back to watch the Buffaloes play under Karl."

COACH "DORR-WELL"

The 27 head coach in CU history, Karl Dorrell started 4-0 in his CU coaching career; only Harry Heller (won his first seven in 1894), Willis Kleinholtz (six in 1905), T.W. Mortimer (five in 1900) and Rick Neuheisel (five in 1995) won as many or more to open their CU careers (and Dorrell was OC on Neuheisel's staff). Dorrell was the sixth CU coach to open 3-0 in conference games, but the first since Jim Yeager in 1941.

- ▶ Named the Pac-12 Coach of the Year by both the Associated Press and the league coaches, the sixth coach to be recognized in CU's history with the honor;
- ▶ Named Football Writers Association of America's First-Year Coach of the Year, honoring the top coach among those in their first-year at a new school in 2020;
- ▶ Of the 23 new head coaches in 2020, he was the last of the group who was undefeated come Dec. 6 (finished with the fourth-best winning percentage).
- ▶ He was the third CU head coach to lead the Buffs to a bowl game in his first season, joining Neuheisel ('96 Cotton) and Gary Barnett ('99 Insight.com).
- ▶ He was the first CU coach in his first season to have his team go from unranked to ranked (No. 21 AP, No. 22 USAT/Coaches on Dec. 6; No. 21 CFP on Dec. 8), leading a team that many prognosticators were saying would win maybe one if any games (the over/under in Vegas was 1½ wins).

DORRELL: A COLLEGE FOOTBALL FIRST?

Ironically, with the Buffaloes drawing UCLA for their first game, Karl Dorrell coached against the school he served as head coach for five seasons (2003-07). He was 35-27 with the Bruins over those years. Another irony – his first game as head coach at UCLA was in Boulder against CU, a game in which the Buffs rallied to win, 16-14. He had been an assistant with CU twice (1992-93, 1995-98), but played collegiately at UCLA (1983-86). Thus, in his first game as a head coach, he went up against a former team on which he was an assistant, and his first game his second opportunity as a head coach be against his alma mater, where he also made his head coaching debut. UCLA did win it next game (6-3 over Illinois), which was the school's 500th at the time.

ONLY A HANDFUL HAVE OPENED AGAINST THEIR ALMA MATER

Karl Dorrell was the ninth known Division I head coach to face his alma mater in his first game at his new school (not necessarily his first game overall):

Year	Coach	School	Alma Mater/Opp.	Result	Year	Coach	School	Alma Mater/Opp.	Result
1918	Andy Gill	Kentucky	at Indiana	W 24- 7	2010	Jimbo Fisher	Florida State	Samford	W 59- 6
1982	George Welsh	Virginia	at Navy	L 17-30	2010	Mike London	Virginia	Richmond	W 34-13
1999	Randy Walker	Northwestern	Miami-Ohio	L 3-28	2011	Larry Coker	UTSA	Northeastern State	W 31- 3
2001	Jim Tressell	Ohio State	*Akron (Gr. School)	W 28-14	2020	Karl Dorrell	Colorado	UCLA	W 48-42
2009	Gary Anderson	Utah State	Utah	L 17-35

➔ In 1995, Rick Neuheisel's first game as a head coach (CU) was at Wisconsin; while he didn't go there (he is also a UCLA grad), he was born in Madison. Dorrell's first win as a head coach was in his second game, a 6-3 win over Illinois, which happens to be CU athletic director Rick George's alma mater; the Bruins won that day with two field goals from Justin Medlock. Bill McCartney's first win came in his second game in 1982, a 12-0 triumph at Washington State, on the strength of four Tom Field field goals.

DORRELL A FINALIST FOR 2020 FWAA/EDDIE ROBINSON COACH OF THE YEAR AWARD

For the second time in his career, Karl Dorrell was a finalist for the Football Writers Association of America/Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award in 2020. He was a finalist in 2005 when he was in his third year at UCLA; of the nine finalists this year, he is the only first-year coach at his current school. The other finalists were: Jamey Chadwell, Coastal Carolina, the winner; Tom Allen, Indiana; Brent Brennan, San José State; Matt Campbell, Iowa State; Luke Fickell, Cincinnati; Nick Saban, Alabama; Kalani Sitake, BYU; and Dabo Swinney, Clemson.

INAUGURATIONS

Karl Dorrell was named the 27th full-time head coach in Colorado history last February 23, the 17th dating back to 1935; after the first 10 CU coaches opened 8-1-1, the next 10 lost all theirs; the last six have gone 3-3. Rick Neuheisel snapped the losing streak when his team defeated Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7 in 1995 (the first to win his opener since Herbert Hoover was U.S. President); Mike MacIntyre became just the second coach in that group to win his CU opener in an 81-year span with a 41-27 win over Colorado State in Denver in 2013; and Mel Tucker the third to do so in his inaugural game in 2019 over Colorado State in Denver, 52-31 with Dorrell following in 2020. Overall, Colorado coaches are now 12-14-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look (no head coach 1890-93; number in parenthesis indicates how many games that coach won in a row to begin career):

... AND IN CONFERENCE PLAY

Head coaches have had more success in their first conference game piloting the Buffaloes, going 18-8 including this year when Karl Dorrell's first CU squad opened with the 48-42 win over UCLA (CU was an independent in 1905 when Willis Kleinholtz coached his lone season). He was the first since Gary Barnett won his Big 12 Conference debut, a 51-17 win over Kansas in Boulder; the last three CU head coaches lost their league lid-lifters. As far as winning their first conference game on the road, Tucker became the sixth to do so (number in parenthesis indicates how many conference games that coach won or lost in a row in his first year):

1894 Harry Heller	DENVER	W 44- 0 (4)	1959 Sonny Grandelius	at Oklahoma	L 12-42 (1)

THE CLASS OF '20

Ahead of the 2020 season, 24 programs including CU hired new head coaches, 10 of whom (^) are first-time head coaches on the collegiate level. Here's a look at those coaches that make up the "class of 2020" and their records through the 2020 season (Note: Old Dominion opted out of the 2020 season):

200/200 BALANCING ACT

In the 48-42 win over UCLA, Colorado rushed for 264 yards and passed for 261, improving to 59-11 dating back to the first time it happened in school history in 1960. The three-yard difference tied for the second most-balanced offensive game in CU history. A closer look at all CU games with 200-plus yards rushing and passing that were within 10 yards of each other (*—CU head coach Karl Dorrell was involved in three of the top four and four of the eight games; (Dorrell was an assistant coach at CU in 1993, was the offensive coordinator in 1997):

HIGH SCORING FROM THE GET-GO

The 90 points scored by CU and UCLA marked the highest scoring season opener in CU history, eclipsing the 83 points in last year's 52-31 win over Colorado State in Denver. But it was also a conference opener, and it rose to the second highest scoring league lid-lifter in Buff annals (trailing the infamous Oct. 4, 1980 clash between CU and Oklahoma at Folsom Field. A look at the top five in each (home team in CAPS):

SHINNICK EARNS TOP HONOR

Pete Shinnick ('88), who finished his fourth season as head coach at West Florida in 2019, was named the Gulf South Conference Coach of the Decade (2010-19). Ow does someone win that honor after just four years? First, he started the program in 2016, and one year later, the team reached the Division II championship game. Four years later in 2019, West Florida won the title. Shinnick's Argos were the second-fastest football program to go from startup to national champion in NCAA history. At 9-1, UWF currently owns the best postseason winning percentage in NCAA history (all on the road or at neutral sites).

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 130th season of competition having played 1,267 games with an all-time record of 714-517-36. CU currently stands 26th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (.578; the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 131 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,275), with only USC (851) and Washington (746) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 409-201-16 (.669) all-time and 320-179-10 (.640) in their 97th season on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 7-9 all-time in overtime games (4-6 at home), with seven losses by three points; the Buffs became the 84th team in FBS/I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last 14 seasons, CU has rallied to win from 10 or more points down 14 times. Three of the rallies have come from 17 down: this season, CU spotted Arizona a 13-0 lead, but TB Jarek Broussard's school record 155 yards in the second quarter helped the Buffs take the halftime lead and never look back. In 2019 against Nebraska, the turning point a 96-yard flea-flicker from QB Steven Montez to WR K.D. Nixon that pulled CU to within three; in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Nine have taken place in Boulder, one in Denver, and three on the road (the WSU comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

COLORADO NEAR THE TOP IN ALL-TIME 2,000-YARD / 1,000-YARD CAREER RUNNERS

Colorado is tied for 12th in players who have gained 2,000 or more career rushing yards, as 19 Buffaloes through the years have reached that milestone. TB Phillip Lindsay was the last to do it, as he finished his career in 2017 with 3,707 yards (second all-time at the school). Colorado is also in the top 10 (sixth) in all-time 1,000-yard rushers with 54 (Oklahoma tops that list with 77, followed by Ohio State 69, Nebraska 65, USC 61, Alabama 60, Colorado 54, Army 53, Texas 51, West Virginia 50, LSU 48). The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 2K plateau:

Oklahoma	32	Michigan	20	Colorado State	18	Michigan State	16	San Diego State	14	SMU	12
Nebraska	30	Texas A & M	20	Florida	18	South Carolina	16	Utah	14	Army	11
Georgia Southern	28	Colorado	19	Auburn	17	Tennessee	16	Bowling Green	13	Baylor	11
Ohio State	27	Northern Illinois	19	Boston College	17	Florida State	15	Georgia Tech	13	Mississippi State	11

Alabama	20	Virginia Tech	19	Georgia	16	West Virginia	15	New Mexico	13
Clemson	20	Arkansas	18	LSU	16	Western Michigan	15	North Carolina	13

In 1989, Colorado had four players on the roster at the same time with at least 1,000 career yards: TB Eric Bieniemy, TB J.J. Flannigan, QB Darian Hagan and FB Erich Kissick. Only two other times did the Buffs have three players that had hit that plateau on the same team, in 1993: FB James Hill, TB Rashaan Salaam and TB Lamont Warren and in 2015: Christian Powell, Michael Adkins and Phillip Lindsay.

Historical Note. Colorado was 1-yard away from another 2,000-yard rusher: the late Carroll Hardy ('54) ended his career with 1,999 yards. CU's SID at the time, Fred Casotti, never forgave himself, especially since his final game came against Kansas State, when he had 10 carries for 238 yards. In that 38-14 win, the Buffs rushed 36 times for 493 yards, or 13.7 yards per; he no doubt could have picked up that extra yard. Hardy went on to play pro football and baseball, and his claim to fame was becoming the only player to pinch-hit for Ted Williams (he also pinch-hit for Roger Maris and Carl Yastrzemski).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 34 straight games overall, dating back to being shut out at Washington State (0-28) in 2017 (snapping a 60-game scoring streak).
- CU has scored in 168 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 331 games (all the way back to 1963).
- CU has been shutout just four times in the last 389 games overall (by Missouri in 2008 and 2010, by Stanford in 2012 and Washington State in 2017).
- CU has been shutout just 11 times in its last 622 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford.

THE BUFFS IN NFL STADIUMS

The Buffaloes have played 25 games to date in seven current NFL venues, owning a record of 16-9 (12-4 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City and 0-1 in Santa Clara). All-time, the Buffs are 21-21-1 playing games in stadiums that simultaneously hosted NFL teams (13-6 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in Irving, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 2-3 in Houston, 1-2 in Miami 1-2 in Tempe, 0-2-1 in Anaheim, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City, 0-1 in Santa Clara and 0-3 in Los Angeles).

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 45 seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 250 of 287 times, losing 34 and tying three when it blew the lead. Included in those 33 are four leads that were lost of 20-plus points:

Date	Opponent	CU Lead (when)	Result
10/27/18	OREGON STATE	28 (31-3, 3rd Quarter)	L, 34-41 OT
11/06/10	at Kansas	28 (45-17; 4th Quarter)	L, 45-52
11/10/07	at Iowa State	21 (21- 0; 3rd Quarter)	L, 28-31
10/10/79	OKLAHOMA STATE	20 (20- 0; 4th Quarter)	L, 20-21

(CU has lost a 14-point lead on nine occasions in this time frame).

Colorado has lost only 36 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss was in 2019 (Oct. 25), a 35-31 setback to USC after entering the final stanza with a 31-28 advantage. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 135 of its last 161 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 42 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter. The most recent are the Nebraska and Stanford games this year: the Cornhuskers led 17-0 late in the third period when the Buffaloes started taking over the game, and the Cardinal led briefly in the fourth quarter. Two of the biggest ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

INJURIES SLIGHTLY UP IN 2020

Injuries were kept to a minimum over the 2016 and 2017 seasons after a flurry in 2015, as that season 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. But in 2018, it was a different story as injuries hit 11 different starting positions (including punter and placekicker) that lost their starter for multiple games. In 2019, the count of full games missed was down again (though an abnormal number of partial games was the case). Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 35 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 24 positions (including kickers and punters plus backups):

Dating back to 1987, CU has lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury 16 times (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12-13-15-16-17-18-19).

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

“OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS”

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 89-53 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 89-51-1 in its last 141 games against schools that include the word “State” (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 565-290-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

18 TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 18 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Junior CB Dante Wigley is the most recent to accomplish it, racing 27 yards with his first pick for a touchdown versus Oregon State on Oct. 27. S Nick Fisher did it in grand style on Oct. 28, 2017: he picked off a pass in the end zone against Cal, his momentum taking him back nine yards deep, and then he raced 109 yards for the score (100 officially by the NCAA). Previous to that, ILB Rick Gamboa returned a deflected pass 20 yards for a score against OSU in 2016, and ILB Kenneth Olugbode had the one before that, racing 60 yards for a score in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State in 2015. That was the first in eight years, going back to 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith had a 31-yard return that cut Nebraska's lead to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. Prior to that was another spectacular one: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

➤ And three did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998), Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002) and Laviska Shenault (2017 vs. Texas State).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

The longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (he would miss the final six games of the season). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games in his final season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Darian Hagan has been a part of 276 Colorado games (130 in two stints as an assistant coach, 62 as a football staff member, 35 as the Alumni C-Club director and 49 as a player); Gary Barnett, now an analyst with KOA, has worked 251 (106 as an assistant coach, 87 as head coach and 58 on the radio); Mark Johnson, who succeeded Zimmer as the voice of the Buffaloes, has called 205 games. SID Dave Plati has worked 475 overall in person (487 overall; a streak of 410 dating from the '83 finale came to an end in the sixth game of 2017; a streak of 255 straight home games and 277 in the state of Colorado are intact). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID/associate AD from 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games (including 268 in a row at Folsom) prior to his passing in 2001. Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home). The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 (the last 294 of which were in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games – since 1940 and every single one – 357 – from 1958 through 2019 (we lost Betty in the summer of 2020; Peggy is 96). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) completed his 47th year as a member of the CU football stat crew in 2019; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. The 10th longest person to serve on a stat crew nationally, he opted out for 2020 due to COVID-19.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has just three players in their final year of eligibility on its 2021 roster, and as history has indicated, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season. Seventeen teams scouted CU in the shortened 2020 season: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Indianapolis, Las Vegas, Miami, Minnesota, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and San Francisco. 1,063 NFL scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites). At the 2016 UCLA game in Boulder, the record for a CU game occurred: 31 scouts from 20 teams were in attendance for the game (next most: 20 for USC in 2017).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 21 former Colorado Buffaloes on the 2021 National Football League training camp rosters (as of August 24; 18 were on final rosters in 2020 after 20 started out in camps). Colorado has had 268 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 276 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and 23rd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002 (10th, 29). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league including 2021; i—on injured reserve/physically unable to perform; p—practice squad):

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Five players are the sons of former NFL players: TE Caleb Fauria (father and former Buff Christian played 13 seasons for four teams); RB Alex Fontenot (father Albert played 10 seasons with three teams); ILB Marvin Ham II (father Marvin, Carolina); WR Brenden Rice (father Jerry played 20 seasons for three teams, 16 with San Francisco); WR Dimitri Stanley (father Walter, played eight seasons with five teams).

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the five who head prep programs: Matt Flavin (Buena Vista), Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Spencer Colter (Denver East), Dusty Sprague (Holyoke), Scott Yates (Kent Denver) and DaVaughn Thornton (Vista Peak). Marcus Washington is a defensive coordinator (Adams City).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three even remained on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) is the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseason combined; assuming the top spot in 2015. Through the 2020 season, he has scored 1,682 points in 224 regular season games (20th in NFL history) and 159 in 22 playoff games (fourth all-time) for a total of 1,841 (he also made an NFL record 23 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks: 345 regular season (22nd all-time) and 30 postseason (fifth all-time); his 647 extra points made are ninth all-time (69 in the postseason are third). He is second all-time on the points and field goal (and third on the PATs made) charts for players who have/had spent their career with just one team. Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points.

➔ How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawai'i (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,384/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349), WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

➔ ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary in August 2015.

➔ 200-PLUS. Crosby, with 224 NFL games under his belt, is the second Buffalo to participate in 200 pro games, as he is chasing OT Stan Brock ('79) for the most-ever by a CU alum. Brock appeared in 234 games (223 starts) in his career that spanned 16 seasons with New Orleans (1980-92) and San Diego (1993-95).

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be a place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 30 of 47 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with four others who started just one season):

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 328-29-1 when scoring 30 or more points (2-0 in 2020, 20-6 over the last five years), with records of 233-9 with 35-plus points and 217-7 with 36-plus, 199-5 with 38-plus and 112-2 with 43 or more tallies. The seven losses with 36 or more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012), California (59-56 in 20T in 2014) and Arizona in 2017 (45-42). CU has played 1,267 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. CU has scored 30 or more points in 160 of its last 370 games, posting a 135-24-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 243 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 30-109-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ The most common point total CU has scored in winning a game are 27 and 31 (34 times each), followed by 20 (32 times); in losing a game, it's 0 (91 times, but the bulk of those—63--were prior to the end of World War II); otherwise, it's 7 (56 times).
- ➔ Colorado is 125-127-3 in its last 255 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
 - ➔ Colorado, however, is only 23-62 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. Technically the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year (6.7; CU did average 5.98 per first down play in 2016). Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, the lowest since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2016, the Buffs had their best average on first down in years: CU averaged 5.98, its best since 2001 (6.7).
 - ➔ In 2019, the Buffs averaged 5.69 yards on 369 first down plays (gaining five or more on 165 of those).
 - ➔ In 2020, the Buffs are averaging 4.83 yards on 162 first down plays (though 122 of those have been rushing plays, with a 4.0 average).
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 65 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 21 seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 84 scores by return in 309 games (77 regular season, seven bowl). The last one: an 81-yard punt return by Brenden Rice against Utah on Dec. 12, 2020.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 55 times in the last 334 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it 1 times under Dorrell (1-0). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 2001 (and threatened to do it in 2016). The Buffs are 53-8 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 61-11 overall. Prior to '93, CU accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ 600+. Colorado is 17-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first and only loss was in 2014 when the Buffs had 630 in a 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU is 0-0 under Dorrell; the last two games with 600-plus were against Nicholls State in 2015 and Washington State in 2016.
- ➔ 500+. Colorado is 15-8 in games when it has gained 500 or more yards on offense since it joined the Pac-12 conference, 8-7 in Pac-12 games. All-time (since 1946 when records are available), the Buffs are 86-14 with at least 500 yards of total offense. CU is 1-0 under Dorrell.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 103-106 in its last 209 games on grass, including a 67-63 mark at home (17-10 in the last 27 games at Folsom), dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass (CU is 23-14 on grass over the last four-plus seasons).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 101-68-3 in its last 172 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 66-51-3 mark in conference games. CU is 2-1 on the fake stuff under Karl Dorrell.
- ➔ First Quarter Dominance. Dating to the start of 2016 (54 games), Colorado has been fairly dominant in the first quarter: CU has outscored its opponents 378-282 with edges in total offense of 422 yards and plus-8 in TO margin.
- ➔ Goal-to-Go Situations. Over the last seven seasons, the Buffs have scored in 140 out of 154 situations when it has been first-and-goal. This includes 112 touchdowns and 28 field goals, thus the TD percentage is 72.7 and the overall percentage is 90.9. The 14 non-scores: seven fourth down misses, four missed field goals (from 26, 28, 31 and 33 yards) and three turnovers.
- ➔ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 19-4 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover (1-1 under Tucker, including his first game as coach, the 52-31 win over Colorado State). In these 23 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 905-509 (only seven games decided by less than 17 points).
- ➔ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 89 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 58-27-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under Dorrell, CU is 1-0.
- ➔ Time Spent In The Lead. The Buffaloes held leads in 11 of 14 games in 2016 (two-score leads in 10 of those), and were ahead for a total of 457:20 on the season. That's the second-most by a hair in the 26 years CU has tracked the stat (CU led for 458:01 in 1996—a 12-game season including the bowl). In 2017 and 2018, CU held the edge up until both season finales, the opponent owning edges of 16:43 in 2017 and 12:32 in 2018. In 2019, CU led 34.7 percent of the time (250:05), but were over 100 minutes behind the opponent (350:52).
 - ➔ In 2020, CU led for 199:44, or 55 percent of the time.
- ➔ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2016, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season 16 times (last in 2017), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season. CU was averaging over 400 through 10 games in 2018 and through 11 in 2019 but finished just below both seasons.
 - ➔ CU had six games in 2019 with 400 or more yards (high of 520).
 - ➔ The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once – 303.5 – in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just four times, including 2014 and 2016 (254.4).
- ➔ CU rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Dating back to 1993, opponents are just 5-of-134 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense have had streaks of 51 and 30 in this span (Stanford is the last team to convert one, in 2011; the opponent is now 0-of-25 since). The CU offense is 13-of-151 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span (0-of-10 since last converting on a 3rd-&-27 in the '16 Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State).
- ➔ CU scored in 20 of 24 quarters in 2020 (32 of 48 in 2019) and in 121 of 168 quarters dating back to the start of the 2017 season).

TURNOVER ANALYSIS / DORRELL ERA

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics usually back up the argument, thus we will chart the numbers under Karl Dorrell. A closer look:

Dorrell Era	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
4 WINS	5	7	+ 2	21	10	+11
2 LOSSES	6	1	- 5	0	17	-17
6 GAMES	11	8	- 3	21	27	- 6

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 30-24 in games following a bye week in the post-World War II Era (or since 1946); after the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference in 1948, CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 32 of 35 seasons, with two weeks off 12 of those years (including 2019) and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 26-21 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes a 4-6 mark as a member of the Pac-12 (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013, at USC and Oregon in 2014, at Utah in 2017 and to Arizona in 2019; and wins over UCLA in 2016 and 2018, Washington in 2019 and San Diego State in 2020).

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

Four players in the last five years have scored a touchdown on their first career touch, with one still remaining on the roster: in 2018, WR Daniel Arias caught a 37-yard pass from QB Steven Montez to become the 16th known player to do so in CU history (he did so in his hometown, making it even more special). Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see elsewhere in these notes), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

SOUTH PARK RALPHIE INTRO

Most know that the creators of Comedy Central's popular South Park are University of Colorado alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. They voices Eric Cartman; he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that debuted during the countdown to kickoff prior to the 2014 Arizona State game. It's been a hit since, especially among the CU student section. Cartman is seen in his usual garb and he introduced Ralphie before the real buffalo led the Buffs on the field.

2021 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1891 (Nov. 26) After going 0-4 in its first season of intercollegiate football the previous year, and dropping the first four games in '91, Colorado earns its first-ever win in the sport with a 24-4 win on the road against the Colorado Springs Athletic Association.
- 1896 Colorado records its first undefeated season with a 5-0-0 mark, outscoring the five opponents 161-6.
- 1901 After a one-year absence, Fred Folsom returns for his second of three stints as CU head coach, piloting the Buffs to a 5-1-1 mark.
- 1906 Colorado posts perhaps its weirdest record in its football history: 2-3-4, the four ties all of the scoreless variety. CU scored just 28 points but allowed only 32.
- 1911 The third of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. Colorado outscores the six opponents 88-5, allowing one field goal on defense and a safety for the only points.
- 1916 The first year of the post-Fred Folsom Era, as CU's legendary coach retired following the 1915 season; Bob Evans takes over but the Silver & Gold go 1-5-1.
- 1921 (Oct. 29) CU travels its furthest east for a football game, some 926 miles, but lose 35-0 at the University of Chicago, then a powerhouse in college football; the only longer trip at the time in program history was a 1915 game against Washington in Seattle, 999 miles from the CU campus. Trains took CU to both locales.
- 1926 CU opens the year with four straight home games, only done three times since (1937, 1943 and 1978 – in all of which the first five were at Folsom Field).
- 1931 (Nov. 26) Colorado defeats Arizona in Tucson, 27-7, on Thanksgiving, the last time (and of three total) Thanksgiving Day games CU has played out of the state.
- 1936 (Nov. 7) Byron White sets a then-school record by scoring 25 points (4 TD, 1 PAT) in a 31-7 win at Utah. White sets up his All-America season the following year by rushing for 643 yards with 1,339 all-purpose yards and 10 touchdowns.
- 1946 Jim Yeager reassumes head coaching position after serving in World War II for two years. An Oct. 12 win at Wyoming (20-0) was played in a blizzard.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado drills Nebraska in Lincoln, 36-14, in the program's first-ever televised game. Bill Stern (play-by-play) and Ray Michael (commentary) call the game, produced independently and aired regionally on NBC.
- 1956 (Nov. 4) After giving Oklahoma fits most of the decade, the Sooners roll into Boulder ranked No. 1 in the nation, CU's first-ever against the No. 1 team, and it appears the Buffaloes might finally break through. CU builds a 19-6 halftime lead, only to see OU rally with 21 second half points for a 27-19 win. The Buffs go on to finish 4-1-1 in the Big 7, earning the invitation to the Orange Bowl where CU beat Clemson, 27-21, for the first bowl win in school history.
- 1961 Colorado won its first Big 8 Conference championship, its first league title since 1942 (when it shared the Mountain States crown). The two biggest wins were a 20-19 win over Kansas (after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), and a 7-6 win over No. 10 Missouri. A 7-0 win at Nebraska remains to this day one of the school's all-time defensive gems: the Buffs held Nebraska to 31 total yards and zero first downs. CU reached No. 6 in the polls but lost to No. 4 LSU in the Orange Bowl, 25-7. Joe Romig is named an All-American for the second straight year and earns the Rhodes Scholarship.
- 1966 Colorado finished second in the Big 8 Conference race with a 5-2 mark (7-3 overall), the two league setbacks by a combined three points, 11-10 at Oklahoma State and 21-19 against Nebraska. After losing 24-3 to open the season at No. 20 Miami, the Buffaloes bounce back and win at No. 10 Baylor, 13-7, in a game where CU was on a mission to win after its black players were subject to racist taunts, including on a pregame radio show piped into the team lockerroom.
- 1971 Artificial surfacing makes its debut in Boulder on Sept. 18 versus Wyoming, as an AstroTurf carpet blanketed Folsom Field; fittingly, it snowed two feet that day and likely prevented cancellation of the game. CU's stunning road upsets of No. 9 Louisiana State and No. 6 Ohio State paved the way for a 10-2 season, as the Big 8 owned the top three spots in the final Associated Press poll after the bowls. With Nebraska (#1), Oklahoma (#2) and Colorado (#3), it was the first and to date only time in history one conference has occupied all top three positions at the end of the year. Charlie Davis rushes for a then-record 1,386 yards for the season, including a still-record 342 against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, while Cliff Branch returns an NCAA record four punts for touchdowns. CU caps its first 10-win season with a 29-17 win over No. 15 Houston in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.
- 1976 Colorado won its second Big 8 Conference title with a 5-2 league record; the Buffs were tied with Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, but CU earned the title via tiebreaker by virtue of its wins over the Sooners (42-31) and Cowboys (20-10). Nine players off the '76 team would be selected in the following spring's NFL Draft, including five in the second round in an 18-pick span between Nos. 35 and 52.
- 1981 The Buffs were 3-8, winning their season opener (45-27 over Texas Tech), homecoming (11-10 over Oklahoma State) and season finale (24-21 against Kansas State). Coach Chuck Fairbanks would resign the following June 1 to take a similar job with the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1986 Fresh off a season where CU won the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over a 1-10 record in 1984), the Buffaloes open up a disappointing 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined eight points. CU rallies to win its next five, including a 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska which many refer to as the "Turning Point" in the Coach Bill McCartney Era. That run set up a battle for first place in the Big 8 and the Orange Bowl berth that went with it against Oklahoma on Nov. 15. But the Sooners end the dream with a 28-0 win in Boulder, in a game where OU did not attempt a single pass.
- 1991 Colorado ties for a third straight Big 8 title with a 6-0-1 mark, as a Nov. 2 tie with Nebraska (19-19) ends a 19-game winning streak in conference play, dating back to the '88 finale. Lamont Warren rushes for 830 yards, to this day a single-season best by a CU freshman, and in one of the most daring personnel moves since the days of platoon football, coach Bill McCartney plays his starting quarterback, senior Darian Hagan, as the team's top punt returner so he can better showcase his talents for professional football.
- 1996 A 33-21 win over Washington gives CU a 10-2 record, its third consecutive 10-win season for the first time in school history. It was also the inaugural season of the Big 12 Conference, and Colorado won its first league game, 24-10, at Texas A&M in a game where the Buffs had the quickest score from scrimmage in their history: after Ryan Sutter recovered an A&M fumble on the opening kickoff, Rae Carruth scored on a 28-yard end around just 13 seconds into the game. Koy Detmer set a school record with 3,156 passing yards, and the 20-4 start over his first two seasons as a college coach by Rick Neuheisel ranks as one of the top 5 all-time in NCAA history.
- 2001 A Sept. 15 game at Washington State was cancelled due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the east coast. CU plays in its first Big 12 Championship game and wins the title with a 39-37 win over Texas in basically a road win at Irving; a 62-36 win over Nebraska the previous week gave the Buffs their first North Division title, as Chris Brown rushed for 198 yards and a school-record six touchdowns. Daniel Graham wins the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, and is named the school's sixth unanimous All-American. No. 2 Colorado plays in its first (and only) BCS game, but loses to No. 3 Oregon 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl.
- 2006 Dan Hawkins named 23rd full-time head coach at Colorado; PK Mason Crosby repeated as first-team All-American, as he was the first placekicker at CU to earn the honor even one time.
- 2011 Colorado officially becomes a member of the Pac-12 Conference, joining along with Utah what was previously known as the Pacific-10; both became members on July 1, 2011. Jon Embree named the 24th head coach in CU football history. The Buffaloes win league titles in men's and women's cross country and claim the postseason men's basketball championship by winning four games in as many days.
- 2016 Colorado pulls off the last-to-first accomplishment in winning its first Pac-12 South Division title with an 8-1 record, though losing the league's title game to Washington. The Buffs rise as high as No. 8 in the College Football Playoff standings and earn their first bowl bid (Alamo Bowl opposite Oklahoma State) in nine years. CU defeats Arizona State, Oregon, Stanford and UCLA for the first time as members of the Pac-12.

FIVE CU GAMES IN ESPN's TOP 150 ALL-TIME

ESPN compiled all kinds of top lists commemorating the 150th anniversary of college football in 2019, and came out with its listing of the top 150 games. Five Buffalo games made the list (all wins); while we might not necessarily agree as in our opinion, the "Fifth Down" game could have been bumped for the 62-36 win over Nebraska in 2001, or the 21-21 tie with Oklahoma in 1952 (the Sooners' only blemish in Big 7 play). Five out 150 is not too bad; those games:

No. 21	Ann Arbor	Sept. 24, 1994	#7 Colorado 27, #4 Michigan 26
No. 64	Miami	Jan. 1, 1991	#1 Colorado 10, #5 Notre Dame 9 (Orange Bowl)
No. 87	Columbia	Oct. 6, 1990	#2 Colorado 33, Missouri 31
No 123	Irving	Dec. 1, 2001	#9 Colorado 39, #3 Texas 37 (Big 12 Championship)
No.130	Boulder	Nov. 4, 1989	#2 Colorado 27, #3 Nebraska 21

Number one on the list? The true game of the century, Nov. 25, 1971, #1 Nebraska 35, #2 Oklahoma 31 in Norman, Okla.

AND OF THE TOP 150 COACHES ... CU had two on their list:

No. 87 Fred Folsom 107-28-6 (Colorado: 1895-1902 and 1908-15; 78-23-2, Dartmouth: 1903-06; 29-5-4)

Folsom enjoyed four unbeaten seasons at Colorado, including three straight from 1909-11, part of a 21-game winning streak over five seasons. That was his second tenure with the Buffs; Folsom retired from coaching in 1915 at age 42, but he continued at his chief job on the Boulder campus: He taught at the law school until 1943.

No. 144 Bill McCartney 93-55-2 (all at Colorado, 1982-94)

McCartney won seven games in his first three years at Colorado and never had a losing season again. The all-time leader in wins at the school, he won three conference championships, won the school's only national championship (in 1990) and played for the national championship in 1989. McCartney coached 1994 Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

AND OF THE TOP 150 PLAYERS ... Just one Buffalo, surprisingly (was hoping for two or three (e.g. QB Darian Hagan, TB Rashaan Salaam):

No. 116 Byron "Whizzer" White (RB, Colorado, 1935-37; Rushing yards: 1,864 | Total offense: 2,538 yards | Touchdowns: 24)

White excelled on the field and in the classroom at Colorado. In 1937, the Heisman runner-up led the nation in four major statistical categories: scoring, rushing, total offense and all-purpose yards. White's record-setting 246 all-purpose yards per game stood until Barry Sanders broke the mark in 1988. White was a Phi Beta Kappa scholar and first in his class at Colorado (180 hours of A, six of B). He became a Rhodes Scholar and was No. 1 in his class at Yale. White won two Bronze Stars in Pacific combat in World War II and in 1962, President John F. Kennedy appointed him to the U.S. Supreme Court, the youngest man at the time (44 years old) to be named to the nation's highest court (approved by a voice vote).

BUFFS ON ESPN'S GAMEDAY

Colorado has hosted ESPN's College GameDay three times (Sept. 23, 1995 vs. Texas A&M, Oct. 28, 1995 vs. Nebraska, Sept. 14, 1996 vs. Michigan); the Buffs have been the visiting team on three occasions as well (Oct. 29, 1994 at Nebraska, Sept. 30, 1995 at Oklahoma, Sept. 13, 1997 at Michigan).

TRUE FRESHMAN O-LINE STARTERS

It's pretty rare when a true freshman starts on the offensive line; in fact, in Colorado history current sophomore OT Frank Phillip became just the 12th player to do so when he started for the first time against Oregon State. Those dozen players have combined to make a total of 51 starts; no true freshman has started the entire season on the O-line. As the late great Keith Jackson would say, here's a list of CU's "big uglies" who have started games on the line (total number of starts in last column):

Player	Pos.	First Start	Opponent	Total	Player	Pos.	First Start	Opponent	Total

COLD WEATHER GAMES

With the 2020 season commencing on Nov. 7 and seven games on the revised schedule, chances were the Buffaloes would play in at least one game that would crack the school's coldest list in its history. And that's exactly what happened, as the Dec. 12 home game against Utah saw a 23 degree temperature at kickoff (which was the same temp at game's end), with a wind chill of 19 degrees. It snowed all day into the night on Friday, subsiding in the wee hours. Here's a list of a sub-30 degree weather at kickoff in CU annals (the Buffs are 14-9-1 all-time, including a 12-3-1 mark at home, when the thermometer doesn't crack 30):

OPPONENTS & 2021 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 11 FBS opponents on the 2021 Colorado schedule combined for a 39-33 record in the COVID-19 shortened 2020 season (a 54.2 winning percentage); only one opponent played as many as 10 games (Texas A&M, going 9-1); three teams played as few as four.

- Colorado and Texas A&M were set to resume their rivalry from their Big 12 Conference days last year in College Station, now delayed until this year in Denver (which as a possible site was built into the original contract).
- With the A&M game at Denver's Empower Field at Mile High, it will be the 44th game CU will play in a stadium that is or has been home to an NFL team (21-21-1 record); CU is 16-9 in current NFL venues, which includes a 12-4 record at Empower (all previous games against Colorado State).
- With the season opener on a Friday night, it will be the seventh time in eight years the Buffaloes will open on a weeknight (2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 in Denver, 2015 in Honolulu and now 2021 in Boulder); the Buffs opened the 2013 season on a Sunday.
- Minnesota will be the first Big Ten Conference team to visit Boulder since Nebraska in 2019, but the first pre-realignment since Michigan in 1996.
- Only UCLA has a bye before playing the Buffaloes in 2021 (CU hosts Oregon State that day); Colorado's bye comes the week before hosting Arizona for Family Weekend (the Wildcats host UCLA when the Buffs have their Saturday off).
- CU is 5-5 overall in Pac-12 openers (2-4 at home) and will open against Arizona State for the third time (1-1, the second time in Tempe).
- Friday Night Lights. The Buffaloes will play on a Friday night at least once for the seventh time in eight years; one that was scheduled in 2020 versus Utah was moved to the next day. Colorado is 18-25 all-time on Fridays (8-10 night; CU is 5-7 on Friday nights since joining the Pac-12, 1-6 in league games).
- With two Friday night affairs, Colorado will have had at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 26th time over the last 27 seasons; the only exception was in the abbreviated 2020 campaign. The Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But starting in 2013, the game with the Utes was passed on by the Pac-12's television partners for Friday airing until FOX will show the 2021 contest on one of its platforms (FOX/FS-1/FS-2).
- Colorado is scheduled to travel 7,563 ground and air miles round-trip for its non-Boulder games in 2021: Texas A&M (Denver, 60); Arizona State (Tempe, 1,261), Cal (Berkeley, 1,941), Oregon (Eugene, 1,787), UCLA (Pasadena, 1,719) and Utah (Salt Lake City, 795).
- In Pac-12 play, Colorado will miss Stanford and Washington State this year and in 2022; they rotate back in for 2023-24 when Cal and Washington come off.
- The 2020 game canceled at Colorado State was the last in an 11-game series renegotiated and signed in December 2009; the schools will resume the series in 2023-24 (Sept. 16 in Boulder and Sept. 14 in Fort Collins), and earlier this year signed a six-year series to continue what has become known as the Rocky Mountain Showdown. Those games are set for 2029-30, 2033-34 and 2037-38. The two had played every year since 1995 and 31 times dating back to 1983.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the late spring additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of August 28 (2021 records in parenthesis):

FOLSOM FIELD #1

In 2017, LawnStarter.com ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State).

The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

CU IS BLACK & GOLD, BUT FOLSOM WAS FIRST TO GO "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process.

U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT TABS BOULDER #1

In October 2020, U.S. News & World Report released its annual ranking of the top 150 places to live in the United States. In its summary, the publication wrote: "Snug against the foothills where the Great Plains give rise to the Rocky Mountains, Boulder is nothing if not a looker. This city reveals its spectacle at the crest of a hill on U.S. Route 36 from Denver with its iconic sandstone slabs rising from the mountains, prefaced by pine-clad mesas and cradled within the backdrop of the snow-capped Indian Peaks." Boulder received high scores for desirability, job market and quality of life (also receiving the No. 1 ranking in the latter).

The top 10: 1. Boulder; 2. Denver; 3. Austin, Texas; 4. Colorado Springs; 5. Fort Collins, Colo.; 6. Charlotte, N.C.; 7. Des Moines, Iowa; 8. Fayetteville, Ark.; 9. Portland, Ore.; 10. San Francisco. Other Pac-12 Metro Areas: 13. Seattle; 29. San Jose, Calif.; 31. Salt Lake City; 53. Phoenix; 76. Eugene; 80. Salem, Ore.; 85. Spokane; 97. Los Angeles; 113. Tucson.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2019 was 297,435, an average of 49,573 for six home games, an increase of approximately 3,700 over 2018. It marks the 25th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest average draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 43rd time in the last 45 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count for 2019 was 32,668 when adding in 12,254 student holders to 20,414 public tickets (student tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2019, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 54th straight year, ahead of Colorado State (23,337) and Air Force (27,084; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965). In 2019, the Broncos averaged 75,937 per game and the Rockies 36,954. No numbers from 2020 were computed into this because of the pandemic.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 55 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants, owning a 24-30-1 record; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on seven occasions (0-8 in that combo). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

WHO IS/HAS BEEN IN ON OFFENSE & DEFENSE

The last Buff to play on both sides of the ball was OLB Carson Wells, who played some fullback late in 2018 (three snaps, picking up two touchdown block credits) . . . George Frazier, as he did his freshman year in 2014, appeared on both offense (TE/FB) and defense (DE) as senior in 2017 (he played 506 total snaps between offense, defense and special teams). In 2014, he played both defensive end and fullback for the first time against Arizona State, becoming the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. Otherwise, you have to go back to the 2008 season, when Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon (DT/OG at Texas on October 15, 2005) and that was the first time it happened other than a gimmick here or there since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993 (linemen DE James Garee, DT Sam Wilder and DT Justin Bannan all appeared on offense, catching one pass each). CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards).

SUPER BOWL BUFFALOES

In 2020, 247Sports looked at all 108 rosters of the 54 Super Bowls and developed an all-time list of the schools that have the most players appear in the game (results for SB55 were not updated). Colorado came in tied for 10th with LSU and Ohio State with 93 players (Buff's have won a total of 52 Super Bowl rings). Topping the list was Miami-Fla. with 122, followed by USC (120), Michigan (114), UCLA (112), Penn State (110), Notre Dame (105), Tennessee (102), Georgia and Nebraska (96). Next after the Buffs from the Pac-12 were Stanford (16th, 84), California (17th, 83), Arizona State (19th, 75) Oregon (23rd, 71) and Washington (28th, 65).

SUPER BOWL SCORING. In the 55 Super Bowls, Colorado is tied for 21st in producing points with 37: WR Cliff Branch scored 18 for the Raiders, PK Mason Crosby seven for the Packers, FB Cullen Bryant six for the Rams and WR Boyd Dowler six for the Packers. The all-time list:

Miami, Fla.	84	Stanford	54	USC	42	LSU	32	BYU	24

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

WESTBROOK SET FOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTION

Some 27 years later, it still resonates and sends chills through CU football fans as if it happened just yesterday through the late Keith Jackson's call on ABC: "Stewart with time ... He lets it go ... He's got three people down there ... The ball's up in the air ... Caught! Touchdown! ... Caught by Westbrook for a touchdown! ... Incredible!" (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5Nt6HjqtJt8&t=87s>).

On Sept. 24, 1994, Michael Westbrook cemented his name in CU and college football history with that catch, dubbed the "Miracle in Michigan." He was officially recognized as one of college football's all-time greats as he was selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in its 2020 Class. He will become the ninth Buffalo enshrined in the Hall, joining Byron White (inducted in 1952), Joe Romig (1984), Dick Anderson (1993), Bobby Anderson (2006), Alfred Williams (2010), John Wooten (2012), Coach Bill McCartney (2013) and Herb Orvis (2016). Westbrook becomes the second player who was coached by McCartney to enter the Hall, joining Williams who played for him during his tenure as head coach (1982-94).

At the time of his graduation, he finished his career as CU's all-time leader in receptions (167), receiving yards (2,548) and receiving touchdowns (19). Those numbers still remain fourth, third and seventh, respectively, a quarter century after he played, while his average of 15.3 yards per reception is the fourth-highest among the 36 players in CU history with 70 or more catches. He had eight career 100-yard games (six over 125) and was 11th in all-purpose yards (2,858) and 22nd in scoring (116 points). To this day, he remains tied for the school's most receptions in bowl games (14) and the leader in yards (283).

"I knew I had been on the ballot, and you anticipate getting in, but you never expect it so I kind of let my guard down a bit," Westbrook said. "Then I got the package from the Hall of Fame, and I'm like, 'Wow!' I think back to those days, and it was such an awesome time in our lives," he continued. "You couldn't ask for a better situation to go through and succeed in. We had quality coaches, a great support staff and awesome teammates. Beginning with Coach Mac when he came to my high school and recruited me on the spot when he was there looking at someone else.

McCartney was pleased to hear that Westbrook will be joining him in the Hall of Fame. "He could have gone in before I did, you're only as good as the players you are privileged to coach," McCartney said. "I'm excited for Michael. He was a game changer, the real deal and looked the part. He was big, strong and fast. The defense always had to be concerned with where he lined up and he was nearly impossible to cover one-on-one. As a blocker, he was downright vicious, probably the best blocking receiver I've ever coached — and it was something he took great pride in. He's obviously known for the catch in Michigan, but he shouldn't be defined by it. He was so much more for us than that one play."

THREE BUFFALOES ONCE AGAIN ON COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME BALLOTGarten, Hudson, Salaam appear on ballot for 2022 class*

Three University of Colorado football players once again made the national ballot for the 2022 class that will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, which the National Football Foundation (NFF) released on June 2.

Offensive guard Joe Garten (1987-90), defensive back Chris Hudson (1991-94) and tailback Rashaan Salaam (1992-94) appear on the ballot for the 2022 class, which will be announced early next year. All have advanced to the national ballot from the district selection process at least once before.

“It’s an enormous honor to just be on the College Football Hall of Fame ballot considering more than 5.47 million people have played college football and only 1,038 players have been inducted,” said NFF President & CEO Steve Hatchell. “The Hall’s requirement of being a First-Team All-American creates a much smaller pool of about 1,500 individuals who are even eligible. Being in today’s elite group means an individual is truly among the greatest to have ever played the game, and we look forward to announcing the 2022 College Football Hall of Fame Class early next year.”

Garten was a two-time first-team All-American, consensus as a junior in 1989 and unanimous as a team captain and senior in 1990, when he finished as the runner-up for the Outland Trophy. He was a member of CU’s Big Eight champion teams both years and the ‘90 consensus national championship team. The Buffaloes were 22-2-1 those two years, rising to No. 1 in the national polls late in both seasons.

Hudson, who played both safety and cornerback during his CU career, was a consensus first-team All-American as a senior in 1994, when he also won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation’s top defensive back. He is one of six Buffaloes in history to earn first-team All-Conference honors three times, at corner as a sophomore and senior and at free safety his junior year. He had 141 career tackles with 15 interceptions – second-most in CU annals – and 20 passes broken up. He helped CU to an 11-1 mark his last season despite playing the bulk of the year with a turf toe injury.

Salaam, CU’s only Heisman Trophy winner, passed away on Dec. 5, 2016, became the fourth player to rush for 2,000 yards in a season at the time when he rambled for 2,055 yards in 1994. He also claimed the Doak Walker Award as the nation’s top running back, the Walter Camp Trophy for the national player of the year and was a unanimous first-team All-American and first-team All-Big Eight, also selected the conference’s offensive player of the year.

Other Buffaloes on the district ballot include Eric Bieniemy (tailback, 1987-90), Deon Figures (cornerback, 1988-92) and Matt Russell (linebacker, 1993-96). Bieniemy has previously advanced to the national ballot, but since he is an active coach in the NFL, he isn’t eligible for selection until his coaching days are complete.

The 2020 and 2021 classes will be inducted this Dec. 7 in Las Vegas. CU’s Michael Westbrook is a member of the 2020 class, and he will become the eighth Buffalo player to be enshrined, along with one coach, Bill McCartney. Westbrook will be honored with an on-field celebration by the NFF on Oct. 2 when CU hosts Southern California.

Previous CU players inducted include Byron White, Joe Romig, Bobby Anderson, Dick Anderson, Alfred Williams, John Wooten and Herb Orvis, along with one head coach, Bill McCartney.

CU ANNOUNCES FUTURE FOOTBALL GAMES & SERIES

Colorado announced on July 8 that it has added four football opponents – for a total of seven games – to its future football schedules. Wyoming filled a vacancy in 2025 that was created when a previously scheduled game against Missouri was moved to 2031, as the Tigers needed dates to rekindle their rivalry with Kansas. Three home-and-home series were revealed, with Southern Methodist (2030, 2031), North Texas (2032, 2033) and Oklahoma State (2036, 2037).

PAC-12, BIG TEN & ACC ANNOUNCE ALLIANCE

On August 24, the commissioners of the Pac-12, Big Ten and Atlantic Coast conferences held a joint press conference announcing an alliance between the three. Many particulars have yet to be figured out, but they did announce crossover scheduling between the three in football and men's and women's basketball (the conferences will work on scheduling games, not the individual schools, which number 41 in all (Notre Dame comes under the ACC umbrella and will be included in all except football). The three conferences remain competitors in every sense but are committed to collaborating and providing thought leadership on various opportunities and challenges facing college athletics, including: student-athlete mental and physical health, safety, wellness and support; strong academic experience and support; diversity, equity and inclusion; Social justice; Gender equity; future structure of the NCAA; federal legislative efforts and postseason championships and future formats.

A note about CU's depth: in-season, charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries.
